

Principles of Management Final Exam -

Q1

- (a) Two leaders may serve as managers within the same company but have very different titles and purposes. Large organizations, in particular, may break down management into different levels because so many people need to be managed.
- (i) List the typical management levels in organisations. [3 marks]
  - (ii) Explain the role of each level towards achieving organisational goals. [6 marks]
- (b) Through comparing the work of Frederick Taylor and Elton Mayo, explain how the Classical Approach to management differs from the Human Relations Approach. [12 marks]
- (c) Organizations, like humans, tend to progress through stages known as a life cycle.
- (i) List the different stages of the organisation life cycle. [4 marks]
  - (ii) Explain the characteristics of each stage that influence the structure of the firm. [8 marks]

[Total 33]

- (a) Management theories relating to organizational structure, including the classical, human relations and contingency approaches, describe the most important influences on management. Describe, relating to a manager's personal attitudes as well as the organizational context, how the most relevant management theories would be applied by managers in today's organizations. [12 marks]
- (b) The authors writing "What has led to this new emphasis on HR?" discuss the reasons why managers are turning to human resources practices. Explain, on the other hand, why managers require resources and activities differently and effectively. What are the benefits for the growing process being viewed within organizational structure? [12 marks]
- (c) The development of teams and networks has grown dramatically in all types of organizations in our single world. We can picture the the ability to deliver the kinds of products and services required in today's highly competitive marketplace. Organizations must depend on resources and effective ways to deliver necessary products and services. The different types of teams function in organizations. [12 marks]
