Kong Chong Ho,2025-10-01 The largest cities in Pacific Asia are the engines of their countries economic growth seats of national and regional political power and repositories of the nation s culture and heritage The economic changes impacting large cities interact with political forces along with social cultural concerns and in the process also impact the neighbourhoods of the city Neighbourhoods for the City in Pacific Asia looks at local collective action and city government responses and its impact on the neighbourhood and the city A multi sided comparative approach is taken in studying local action in five important cities Bangkok Hong Kong Seoul Singapore and Taipei in Pacific Asia With site selection in these five cities guided by local experts neighbourhood issues associated with the fieldsites are explored through interviews with a variety of stakeholders involved in neighbourhood building and change The book enables comparisons across a number of key issues confronting the city heritage Bangkok and Taipei local community involved provisioning of amenities Seoul and Singapore placemaking versus place marketing Bangkok and Hong Kong Cities are becoming increasingly important as centers for politics citizen engagement and governance The collaborative efforts city governments establish with local
