Sonnon,2008-10-01 The founders of Russian sambo sifted through all of the world's martial arts including judo and jujitsu to get the most combat effective techniques available Each technique was carefully dissected and considered for its merits in achieving sambo's ultimate goal to stop an armed or unarmed adversary in the least time possible In this book author Scott Sonnon traces the development of the four types of sambo self defense sport wrestling combat sambo and Spetsnaz and then focuses on sambo's mixed martial arts applications Here he reveals the signature saddle techniques that have made him one of the most respected leg lock coaches in the world With 101 step by step moves including entries sweeps passes recounters and a host of submissions this series is a must for all MMA competitors searching for an edge over the competition Sambo prides itself on fast wrestling with only 60 seconds of groundfighting permitted In mixed martial arts however these locks only work 20 percent of the time and aren't worth sacrificing quality position As a result Sonnon modified traditional sambo to become a lower half positional approach so that fighters could both strike and defend against strikes maintain positional dominance and easily transition from one submission to the next in a chess like fashion as Brazilian Jujitsu has become known for in the upper half game Now you too can learn these winning strategies from one of the best sambo instructors in the world

Sambo and Systema: Russia's Prominent Martial Arts Michael DeMarco, M.A.,2016-07-18 Russia is rich in martial traditions deriving from a highly diverse population Sambo developed by the Soviet Red Army became the most recognize martial art associated with Russia mainly because of its presence in international competitions Another style to become recognized for its great practicality and encompassing training regimen is Systema Originally created for Russian Special Operations Units Systema's teaching gradually spread world wide after the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991 This anthology contains writings about Systema and Sambo that present essential information for anyone interested in the history theory and practice of these combative systems In the first chapter Kevin Secours shows that ground fighting and grappling are necessary components of a complete tactical arsenal Specific emphasis is on the role of defending the takedown in a modern survival scenario In chapter two he summarizes the prevailing theories and findings pertaining to the science of fear as it relates to surviving violence How these findings have been interpreted by modern combative systems in the West are compared with approaches to the traditional Russian martial arts and their application in the Russian Special Forces The next three chapters focus on Sambo Jacques and Anderson detail the historical development of Sambo Vasili Sergevich Oshchepkov a student of Jigoro Kano and Victor Spiridonov worked to develop this combative system However despite the judo jujitsu influence Sambo was born of native Russian and other regional grappling and combat wrestling styles bolstered with many useful and adaptable concepts and techniques from the rest of the world This chapter presents details of the early development up to recent times The fourth chapter by Polyakov Yankauskas and DeRose focuses on some of the fundamental techniques that are legal for Sambo competition The purpose of this study was to examine and compare the most successfully used submission techniques of three of the greatest figures in the history of sambo competition Michael Burdikov Alex
