Big Five Persoonlijkheidstest:

Applied Cyberpsychology A. Attrill, C. Fullwood, 2016-04-29 Cyberpsychology is an emerging area of psychological study that aims to understand and explain all facets of online behaviour This book brings together overviews from a number of leading authorities in the field to suggest how academic theory and research can be applied to a variety of online behaviours Both positive and negative behaviours are considered including topics as diverse as parenting the online child age related internet usage and cultural considerations in online interactions Psychological research can no longer view online and offline worlds as different entities but must consider online behaviours as equally distinct as offline activities This is especially apparent when looking at online dating the role that social networks play in organisations and online consumer behaviours and in a consideration of the role that psychological research plays in underpinning the multi billion pound gaming industry Focusing on these personal applications of the Internet insight is also offered into the role that theory and research plays in training military personnel as well as the use of psychometric testing to select and retain employees

Youth 2.0: Social Media and Adolescence Michel Walrave, Koen Ponnet, Ellen Vanderhoven, Jacques Haers, Barbara Segaert, 2016-04-28 This book grasps the duality between opportunities and risks which arise from children s and adolescents social media use It investigates the following main themes from a multidisciplinary perspective identity privacy risks and empowerment Social media have become an integral part of young people s lives While social media offer adolescents opportunities for identity and relational development adolescents might also be confronted with some threats The first part of this book deals with how young people use social media to express their developing identity The second part revolves around the disclosure of personal information on social network sites and concentrates on the tension between online self disclosure and privacy The final part deepens specific online risks young people are confronted with and suggests solutions by describing how children and adolescents can be empowered to cope with online risks By emphasizing these different but intertwined topics this book provides a unique overview of research resulting from different academic disciplines such as Communication Studies Education Psychology and Law The outstanding researchers that contribute to the different chapters apply relevant theories report on topical research discuss practical solutions and reveal important emerging issues that could lead future research agendas
