Essays on Urban Education Suzanne SooHoo,Chapman University. Social Justice Consortium,2004 This Book describes seven faculty members and a graduate student at one university who systematically engaged in a conversation about their experiences in urban education over a three year period Authors used stand point epistemology their own social locations as visas of credibility for their border crossings to urban schools Through their stories a rare communal bond developed Characterized by caring and critique this bonding both challenged and informed traditional notions of scholarship en solo In the end both urban schools and collaboration were more than conceptual places the authors had traveled they were liberating states of mind It is hoped that this work will be a model for future teacher educators to learn and grow by in their collective and united quest for social justice in their immediate urban and institutional surroundings Federal Register ,1992-06-22
