

Poetry Analysis Practice

Learning Targets: I can determine each poem's meaning.

I can determine how poetic techniques create or enhance each poem's meaning or subject matter.

Directions: Read each of the poems in this packet several times. Annotate each poem as you read. Note words or phrases that suggest the poem's theme, note and explain poetic techniques used. Use your "Poetry Terms" notebook for ideas. Note any connections or reactions you have to each poem. Then, answer the questions that follow each poem (either on the piece of or on a separate sheet).

Letter Burns for the Perfection of Paper —Martin Espada

As children, I watched other high school seniors at a printing plant that manufactured legal pads:
the paper
stacked several feet high and leaning
on a rickety scaffold
between the pages,
when brushed and given
up and down the stack, knights' fingers! fingers! required for the perfection of paper, something the water machine couldn't do. In fact, the hands would slide along, suddenly sharp paper, but gather like stones that the winds of the sea, hidden,
blow the great vessels along, frankly saying all sorts of things (and) at the perfection.

Two years later, in law school, I know that every legal pad was glued with the string of hidden cuts, that every open notebook was a part of hands upturned and learning.
