Words and Music by
STEVEN CURTIS CHAPMAN

With a lilt

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. It begins with a dynamic marking of mp and contains several measures of music, including a triplet of eighth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains corresponding bass notes, with a '4' written below the first measure and the instruction 'With pedal' below the first two measures.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from the first system. The lower staff continues the bass line, featuring a triplet of eighth notes in the second measure and a dynamic marking of p in the third measure.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody with various note values and rests. The lower staff continues the bass line with a triplet of eighth notes in the second measure.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody, ending with a long note in the final measure. The lower staff continues the bass line, ending with a long note in the final measure.
