Simpson, 2011 A Survival Guide for New Faculty Members Outlining the Keys to Success for Promotion and Tenure provides new faculty members with practical down to earth wisdom and suggestions for successfully working through to tenure and promotion The authors both successful and experienced administrators and experts in higher education have provided an extremely well organized and useful guide for new faculty members It focuses on all aspects of becoming a new faculty member including the various expectations in completing a successful journey toward promotion and tenure The book underscores the importance of recognizing the three facets of faculty life of teaching research and service This volume clearly sets out compares and separates those three components with clarity and provides very useful advice for putting the three together Taken together with the chapters on Documenting Your Progress and Promotion and Tenure new faculty are provided with a solid practical introduction to building a foundation for success in higher education Feedback and tips are also provided within each chapter It is written in a style that readers will be able to easily comprehend and understand and is supported with many examples In addition the information can be easily applied to new faculty at various types of institutions of higher education EBL book details The Routledge Handbook of Public Speaking Research and Theory Stevie M. Munz, Tim McKenna-Buchanan, Anna M. Wright, 2024-04-18 Providing a comprehensive survey of the empirical research theory and history of public speaking this handbook fills a crucial gap in public speaking pedagogy resources and provides a foundation for future research and pedagogical development Bringing together contributions from both up and coming and senior scholars in the field this book offers a thorough examination of public speaking guided by research across six key themes the history of public speaking the foundations of public speaking issues of diversity equity and inclusion considerations of public speaking across contexts assessment of public speaking and the future of public speaking in the twenty first century The evidence based chapters engage with a broad discussion of public speaking through a variety of viewpoints to demonstrate how subtopics are connected and fraught with complexity Contributors explore public speaking in education business and professional settings and political contexts and outline how skills learned through public speaking are applicable to interpersonal small group and business interactions Reinforcing the relevance importance and significance of public speaking in individual interpersonal social and cultural communication contexts this accessibly written handbook will be an indispensable resource for public speaking instructors and program administrators It will also be valuable reading for Communication Pedagogy and Introduction to Graduate Studies courses Social Justice Instruction Rosemary Papa, Danielle M. Eadens, Daniel W. Eadens, 2016-03-22 This resource offers instructors a full palette of strategies for teaching social justice concepts across subject areas from kindergarten through college Dividing its content between elementary adolescent and adult learners the book analyzes the classroom experience as a powerful means of challenging stereotypes and supporting inclusion respect and equity History language arts literature and social studies as well as mathematics and science are shown as platforms for tying critical thinking to moral behavior And while professional development underlies all chapters in the text special areas such as technology curriculum design recognizing student demographics and raising social justice awareness in school culture are spotlighted Among the topics covered Reframing social justice for the adult learner The politics of being faculty of color teaching social justice in the college classroom Stories of social justice from the kindergarten classroom Critical literacy and multicultural literature The shaming creating a curriculum that promotes socially responsible online engagement Literacy is a civil write the art science and soul of transformative classrooms For educators and education researchers involved in the field Social Justice Instruction unlocks the potential for imparting progressive ideas along the educational spectrum The strategies here model a humanist perspective that will serve learners both in and outside the classroom

A Sociopolitical Agenda for TESOL Teacher Education Peter De Costa, Özgehan Ustuk, 2023-10-05 Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL sits at the nexus of constant change which makes it vitally important for language teachers to engage in continuous development and keep abreast of the sociopolitical milieu in which they are embedded However most teacher education activities are often associated with what is perceived as best practices that are expected to be adopted often uncritically for classroom application and practice with the intention of training teachers to become technicians in their respective classrooms In reality TESOL practitioners often find themselves in situations that require them to be reflexive practitioners and to negotiate sites of political struggles and social injustice Given that a socially situated understanding of TESOL teacher education is often overlooked this volume highlights the sociopolitical dimensions of TESOL teacher education In Part 1 the authors introduce the theoretical underpinnings of the sociopolitical agenda proposed by this volume Building on these theories Part 2 realizes the proposed agenda by situating it within actual TESOL teacher education contexts that are characterized by power imbalances and neoliberally inflected educational injustices

Notes and Queries: A Medium of Inter-Communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc ,1871 Communicating for Change Jo Tacchi, Thomas Tufte, 2020-07-10 This book offers a fresh set of innovative and creative contributions related to the role of communication in processes of change Given the current fast pace of social economic political and technological change across the globe and the central role of communication in this there is a growing need to reconceptualize how we approach communication and change that provides entry points to help us expand and enrich our scholarly and practical work This collection presents 14 concepts from a multi disciplinary collection of internationally leading and emerging scholars from 13 countries on 5 continents They come together around three meta topics citizenship and justice critiques of development and renewing thought from and for the margins The short chapter format ensures that authors get straight to the nub of their ideas providing readers students scholars and practitioners alike with accessible engaging and innovative
