Inside Outside Anita Berrizbeitia, Linda Pollak, 2003 Inside Outside constructs a framework of interpretation for architecture and landscape architecture in order to disclose relations between them that are normally overlooked Five operations reciprocity materiality threshold insertion and infrastructure each initiate an alternative way of looking at the construction and representation of relationships between architecture landscape city and individuals Twenty four projects each contribute in a unique way to the definition of an operation 306090 07: Landscape Within Architecture Emily Abruzzo, Alexander Brisen, Jonathan D. Solomon, David L. Hays, Andrew Yang, 2004-09-30 This new journal fast becoming a staple in the architectural community aims to revitalize reform and rebuild the profession by showcasing the work of promising students young designers and innovative educational institutions Each volume addresses a pressing architectural issue and offers diverse cross disciplinary solutions in the form of projects ideas buildings and other media 306090 07 Landscape within Architecture edited by David L Hays is intended as a foray into landscape architecture and a catalyst for exchange between students faculty and administrators interested in understanding and expanding the presence of landscape within the pedagogy and practice of architecture This volume includes essays by Frederick Steiner Alessandra Ponte James Wines Kimberly Hill and others as well as student projects by Kristin Akkerman Schuster Elena Wiersma and Hillary Sample

Women, Modernity, and Landscape Architecture Sonja Dümpelmann, John Beardsley, 2015-02-11 Modernity was critically important to the formation and evolution of landscape architecture yet its histories in the discipline are still being written This book looks closely at the work and influences of some of the least studied figures of the era established and less well known female landscape architects who pursued modernist ideals in their designs The women discussed in this volume belong to the pioneering first two generations of professional landscape architects and were outstanding in the field They not only developed notable practices but some also became leaders in landscape architectural education as the first professors in the discipline or prolific lecturers and authors As early professionals who navigated the world of a male dominated intellectual and menial work force they were exponents of modernity In addition many personalities discussed in this volume were either figures of transition between tradition and modernism like Silvia Crowe Maria Teresa Pargagliolo or they fully embraced and furthered the modernist agenda like Rosa Kläss Cornelia Oberlander The chapters offer new perspectives and contribute to the development of a more balanced and integrated landscape architectural historiography of the twentieth century Contributions come from practitioners and academics who discuss women based in USA Canada Brazil New Zealand South Africa the former USSR Sweden Britain Germany Austria France and Italy Ideal reading for those studying landscape history women s studies and cultural geography Representing Landscapes Nadia Amoroso, Martin Holland, 2022-03-23 This volume provides an in depth historical overview of graphic and visual communication styles techniques and outputs from key landscape architects over the past century Representing Landscapes One Hundred Years of Visual Communication offers a detailed account of how past and present landscape architects and practitioners have harnessed the power of visualization to frame and situate their designs within the larger cultural social ecological and political milieu The fifth book in the Representing Landscapes series the presentations contained within each of the 25 chapters of this work are not merely drawings and illustrations but are rather graphic touchstones whose past and current influence shapes how landscape architects think and operate within the profession This collected volume of essays gathers notable landscape historians scholars and designers to offer their insights on how the landscape has been presented and charts the development and use of new technologies and contemporary theory to reveal the conceptual power of the living medium of the larger landscape Richly detailed with over 220 colour and black and white illustrations from some of the discipline s best known landscape architects and designers this work is a must have for those studying contemporary landscape design or those fascinated by the profession s history

Flow Penny Sparke,Patricia Brown,Patricia Lara-Betancourt,Gini Lee,Mark Taylor,2018-07-12 Flow combines cutting edge scholarship with practitioner perspectives to address the concept of flow and how it connects interiors landscapes and buildings expanding on traditional notions of architectural prominence Contributors explore the transitional and intermediary relationships between inside outside Through a range of case studies authors extend the notion of flow beyond the western industrialised world and embrace a wider geography while engaging with the specificity of climate and place Accompanied by stunning colour illustration and photography Flow brings together historical theoretical and practice based approaches to consider themes of nature mobility continuity and frames
