Confusions Alan Ayckbourn:

Confusions Alan Ayckbourn, 2013-12-04 A student edition of five one act plays by Britain's most popular playwright Ayckbourn's series of plays for 4-5 actors typify his black comedies of human behaviour. First produced in 1976, the plays are alternately naturalistic, stylised and farcical, but underlying each is the problem of loneliness. The Mother Figure shows a mother unable to escape from baby talk; in The Drinking Companion an absentee husband attempts seduction without success; in Between Mouthfuls a waiter oversees a fraught dinner encounter; a garden party gets out of hand in Gosforth's Fete whilst A Talk in the Park is a revue style curtain call piece for the five actors. Whether the comedies concern marital conflict, infidelity or motherhood and take place on a park bench or at a village fete, the characters are familiar and their cries for help instantly recognisable. Principally, he is respected as a radical re-inventor of form. Dominic Dromgoole Confusions Alan Ayckbourn, 2007 First performed at London's Apollo Theatre in 1976. Confusions a series of one act plays typifies Ayckbourn's particular brand of black comedy on human behaviour. The plays are alternately naturalistic, stylised and farcical, but underlying each is the echoing problem of profound loneliness. The Mother Figure shows a mother unable to escape from baby talk; in The Drinking Companion an absentee husband attempts seduction without success; in Between Mouthfuls a waiter oversees a fraught dinner encounter; a garden party gets out of hand in Gosforth's Fete while A Talk in the Park is a revue style curtain call piece for five actors. The Play of Daniel Keyes' Flowers for Algernon Bert Coules, 1993 The Heinemann Plays series offers contemporary drama and classic plays in durable classroom editions. Many have large casts and an equal mix of boy and girl parts. This play is a dramatization of Daniel Keyes's story about a retarded adult who desperately wants to be able to read and write. Theatre West Four John Anthony Nicholls, 2014-08-19 It was the best of times, it was the best of times to paraphrase Dickens' famous line. That was the experience of the few youthful hopefuls who founded an amazing tradition all those years ago. It was the experience too of the many who happened upon or sought out Theatre West Four and joined up to become faithful supporters and contributors. It became for most of them the centre of their social activity and natural supplier of entertainment, the highlight of each week. Too strong a statement?
