Abstract

While it has become widely known that Canada is well served by various universities and colleges, the reality is that this can be better in the future if the appropriate policies are adopted to avoid future strategic mismanagement or underinvestment. In this paper, we discuss some of the challenges of providing high quality education in the 21st century and the need for strategic planning to ensure that the system is able to meet the needs of the future. We also discuss the need for strategic planning to ensure that the system is able to meet the needs of the future. We also discuss the need for strategic planning to ensure that the system is able to meet the needs of the future.
