Information:

Information is regarded as an important resource for all human activities. The right information from the right source, to the right user at right time is everybody's right. Information is the product of human brain in action. The simple meaning of information is "knowledge, intelligence, facts or data, which can be used, transferred or communicated". Information is the result of experience, observation, interaction and reading.

Thus, the information created should be made available to the users. Therefore, there is a need to provide the information to required users at appropriate time. The information requirements of users depend on social, economic, political, scientific, technological and psychological changes appearing in the society from time to time. Therefore, the information professionals are required to develop skills in organizing and arranging the information, and provide the same to the needy users.

Information Meaning and Definition:

The simple meaning of information, in a restricted sense, is sensible statement, opinion, fact, concept of idea or an association of statements, opinions or ideas. Information is meaningful data used for decision making.

Information means - knowledge communicated or received concerning a particular fact or circumstance; it can also be considered as knowledge gained through study, communication, research, instruction, etc.

The term information is defined in Webster's New International Dictionary as "the communication or reception of knowledge or intelligence".

Nature of Information:
