In Harm's Way Catharine A. MacKinnon, Andrea Dworkin, 1997 This book contains the oral testimony of victims of pornography spoken on the record for the first time in history Speaking at hearings on a groundbreaking antipornography civil rights law women offer eloquent witness to the devastation pornography has caused in their lives Supported by social science experts and authorities on rape battery and prostitution discounted and opposed by free speech advocates and absolutists their riveting testimony articulates the centrality of pornography to sexual abuse and inequity today At issue in these hearings is a law conceived and drafted by Andrea Dworkin and Catharine A MacKinnon that defines harm done through pornography as a legal injury of sex discrimination warranting civil redress From the first set of hearings in Minneapolis in 1983 through those before the Massachusetts state legislature in 1992 the witnesses heard here expose the commonplace reality of denigration and sexual subordination due to pornography and refute the widespread notion that pornography is harmless expression that must be protected by the state Introduced with powerful essays by MacKinnon and Dworkin these hearings unabridged and with each word scrupulously verified constitute a unique record of a conflict over the meaning of democracy itself a major civil rights struggle for our time and a fundamental crisis in United States constitutional law Can we sacrifice the lives of women and children to a pornographer s right to free speech Can we allow the First Amendment to shield sexual exploitation and predatory sexual violence These pages contain all the arguments for protecting pornography and dramatically document its human cost Walking Shadows Ib Johansen, 2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant
