Frederick Douglass

Frederick Douglass was born in 1818. He was born into slavery, which meant he had to work hard and was not treated fairly. Enslaved people were not allowed to learn to read or write, but Frederick was determined to learn. He secretly taught himself by watching others and practicing in secret.

As he grew older, Frederick wanted to be free. One day, he escaped to the North, where slavery was not allowed. He was finally free, but he did not forget the people he left behind.

Frederick became a writer and speaker. He gave powerful speeches about the evils of slavery and wrote books about his life. Many people listened to him and wanted to help end slavery.

Frederick also met with President Abraham Lincoln to talk about freedom and fairness. He worked hard to make sure that all people were treated equally.

After slavery ended, Frederick kept fighting for equal rights. He believed that everyone should have the right to vote and go to school.

Frederick Douglass passed away in 1895, but his words and actions still inspire people today. He showed the world that education and determination can help change the world.
