Prisons, Inmates and Governance in Latin America Máximo Sozzo, 2022-04-29 This edited collection addresses the topic of prison governance which is crucial to our understanding of contemporary prisons in Latin America It presents social research from Nicaragua the Dominican Republic Venezuela Colombia Ecuador Brazil Peru Uruguay and Argentina to examine the practices of governance by the prisoners themselves in each unique setting in detail High levels of variation in the governance practices are found to exist not only between countries but also within the same country between prisons and within the same prison and between different areas The chapters make important contributions to the theoretical concepts and arguments that can be used to interpret the emergence dynamics and effects of these practices in the institutions of confinement of the region The book also addresses the complex task of explaining why these types of practices of governance happen in Latin American prisons as some of them appear to be a legacy of a remote past but others have arisen more recently It makes a vital contribution to the fundamental debate for prison policies in Latin America about the alternatives that can be promoted

Drugs John Baselmans, 2016-12-06 When we think of drugs we immediately think of the old guard drugs like cocaine heroin and hemp Other than that there are for some time synthetic drugs XTC made in many forms colors and effects We talk in this book about the ordinary old fashioned drugs in the form of cocaine We're going to expose what is behind and who are the true drug dealers The old fashioned drug is still the trade with which the super rich enrich themselves Also it is the elite who use a lot of this stuff You can make it clear that most of the top in the business world but also the politics and those who move into higher layers are the permanent users of the cocaine stuff Often in the most pure form and often used daily like a breakfast and dinner But first I like to elaborate some things what is cocaine and who are the driving forces behind these drugs according to world organizations of detecting drugs
