Widmer,2008-11 Essay from the year 1998 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 A University of Aberdeen English Department course Tristram Shandy 4 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Metafiction according to Patricia Waugh consists of the construction of a fictional illusion as in traditional realism and the laying bare of that illusion Tristram Shandy I will argue in this essay undermines fictional illusion by foregrounding the most fundamental set of all narrative conventions those concerning the representations of time Waugh 70 I will exemplify this by trying to apply a conventional set of narratological terms to Tristram Shandy I will show that these terms which are based on conventional narratives are neither exhaustive nor distinctive when one tries to use them for Tristram Shandy Narrative fiction Rimmon Kenan states has three main aspects story text and narration Story designates the narrated events abstracted from their disposition in the text and reconstructed in their chronological order together with the participants in these events Whereas story is a succession of events text is a spoken or written discourse which undertakes their telling Time is essential for all of these three aspects as will become clear in my discussion Time in itself following Rimmon Kenan can be viewed in three respects order duration and frequency p 46 I will focus on the first two aspects since they are more essential to the novel than frequency 4 Finally I will discuss whether after my discussion of Tristram Shandy s time structure one can conclude that the novel is a metafiction according to Waugh s definition of the term

Amal Mejri,2020-07-29 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject American Studies Literature Facult des Lettres des Arts et des Humanit s de la Manouba language English abstract This paper takes a close look at Barth s metafictional short story Lost in the Funhouse 1968 which depicts a thirteen year old boy named Ambrose getting lost in a funhouse on a beach boardwalk Through the internal musings of this self conscious adolescent and those of an anonymous self critical and even self deprecating narrator whose presence overwhelms the narrative Barth thematizes the act of writing puts into question

Forms and Functions of Metafiction Theresia Knuth, 2005-11-09 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 Free University of Berlin course Modern and Contemporary Short Stories language English abstract The Greek preposition et meta which in this context takes on the meaning of about and the literary term fiction which refers to literary work based on imagination together constitute the term metafiction From the start metafiction has been described as fiction somehow about fiction itself First mentioned at the end of the 1950s it was further defined throughout the following three decades Although the term has only been coined in the second half of the 20th century it is not new to literature The fiction described can already be found in much older works such as Chaucer's Canterbury Tales Cervantes Don Quixote and massively in Laurence Sterne's The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy Gentleman Today metafiction is also common in other creative genres and is primarily associated with postmodernism which came up during the 1960s Selfreflexive narrators especially appear in works of postmodern writers such as Vladimir Nabokov John Fowles B S Johnson Donald Barthelme John Barth Jorge Luis Borges or Julian Barnes The typically metafictional Selbstbespiegeln der Literatur im Verein mit dem st ndigen illusionsbrechenden Hervorkehren der Fiktionalit t represents an alternative to the continuation of realism which as postmodernist writers believe has become impossible Critics of metafiction deny it the ability to portray the real world because of its decadent forms of self absorption Behind the paramount purpose of metafiction which is to lay bare its own status as fiction a variety of metafictional devices emerged Although most commonly found in novels such devices are not unusual in short stories as this seminar paper attempts to show

The Publishers Weekly, 1929 Postmodern Issues in Marina Warner's Indigo and *The Lost Father Daniela Baboş, 2002 My Mother, My Country Wendy Goolcharan-Kumeta, 2003 This study is an in depth exploration of mother daughter relationships in the texts of five Guadeloupean women writers both celebrated and less known The five authors whose texts are examined are Maryse Condé Myriam Warner Vieyra Michèle Lacrosil Jacqueline Manicom and Simone Schwarz Bart The author sets out to prove that in the realm of French Caribbean female centric fiction a disturbed or ruptured relationship with the biological mother results in the disintegration of the daughter's psyche and self The mother daughter bond functions as a focus for the exploration of other significant themes which include a quest for an identity and identity formation intimately linked to the issue of history and origins Difficult male female relations and the demoralizing questions of race class and culture differences are also explored Necessary Fictions Kim McMullen,1990 Italian Quarterly Carlo Luigi Golino,1989 The Quest for God in the Novels of John Banville, 1973-2005 Brendan McNamee,2006 John Banville s protagonists long for a sense of completion that neither their own psyches nor the world can satisfy The themes in Banville s work can be seen to form a cultural and psychic bridge between mysticism and postmodernism portraying human consciousness in a bind of forever being trapped in language Rewriting Reality Allyson Fiddler,1994-05-11 This first systematic study of the controversial Austrian feminist writer Elfriede Jelinek offers an extensive survey and analysis of Jelinek s major texts and a discussion of the literary techniques which characterise her writing Background contextual information on historical and literary developments is provided to help the reader gain a better understanding of Jelinek s writing and her place within current international debates on feminism and literary theory Symbolism Rüdiger Ahrens,Klaus Stierstorfer,2005
