Empire Found Racial Identities and Coloniality in Twenty First Century Portuguese Popular Cultures examines how the discourses and narratives of Portuguese imperial exceptionalism and Portuguese racial identity developed during the last centuries of Portuguese settler colonialism continue to inform an array of cultural production and consumption in the four decades since decolonization By examining a range of contemporary popular cultural production literature football musical production and celebrity culture in critical conversation with intellectual production of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Empire Found examines how narratives of Portuguese racial hybridity and indeterminacy operate alongside ongoing structures of coloniality and white supremacy in the realms of cultural production I argue that these implied or overt historical dialogues carried out through cultural production are integral to the very reproduction of the Portuguese nation state apparatus as well as its racial structures and claims to whiteness in the wake of decolonization and marginal integration into the European Union

The Oxford Handbook of Papyrology Roger S. Bagnall,2009-07-27 Thousands of texts written over a period of three thousand years on papyri and potsherds in Egyptian Greek Latin Aramaic Hebrew Persian and other languages have transformed our knowledge of many aspects of life in the ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern worlds The Oxford Handbook of Papyrology provides an introduction to the world of these ancient documents and literary texts ranging from the raw materials of writing to the languages used from the history of papyrology to its future and from practical help in reading papyri to frank opinions about the nature of the work of papyrologists This volume the first major reference work on papyrology written in English takes account of the important changes experienced by the discipline within especially the last thirty years Including new work by twenty seven international experts and more than one hundred illustrations The Oxford Handbook of Papyrology will serve as an invaluable guide to the subject A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen

Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 An essential chronological framework for students of Portuguese literature This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford CONTRIBUTORS Vanda Anastácio Helena Carvalho Buescu Rip Cohen T F Earle David Frier Lu s Gomes Mariana Gray de Castro Helder Macedo Patricia Odber de Baubeta Hilary Owen Stephen Parkinson Cláudia Pazos Alonso Juliet Perkins Teresa Pinto Coelho Phillip Rothwell Mark Sabine Claire Williams Clive Willis
