Islamiyat Textbook English Class 1:

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system. The book examines the questions: Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan? And how has their rule worsened the country's problems? The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society. The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis, interviews, and textbook analysis. This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program. I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions: How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing? I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed. Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky-high inflation. The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class. Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions. Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam? Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan? Instead, many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools. More importantly, why do the ulama, which literally means those who possess knowledge, particularly of Islam, maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions? Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder and discrimination against Pakistani minorities?

Book Review: Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions, intolerance, and conflicts. Dr. Amna Afreen documents the political, socio-economic, and religious causes: limited government funding, widespread poverty and illiteracy, and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools. madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms.

South Asia State of Minorities Report 2018 The South Asia Collective,2018-01-01 South Asia s minorities religious and linguistic groups especially women and those from Dalit backgrounds amongst them and the many indigenous adivasi communities besides sexual minorities make up disproportionate numbers of the poor and excluded in each country suffering discrimination in the socio economic sphere and denial of the most basic human rights South Asia State of Minorities Report 2018 Exploring the Roots seeks to examine the reasons for the poor outcomes for minorities in South Asia shining a light specifically on their socio economic situation and their access to rights and opportunities South Asia demonstrates amply how failures to prevent exclusion and discrimination against specific minorities have opened the way for graver abuse of human rights and violence against those groups The South Asia State of Minorities Report is planned as a tool for advocacy It is hoped that the periodic reports on outcomes for minorities and the quality of state provisioning for them will spur public debate on the subject in the region and create the conditions for state parties and the SAARC to agree to give serious consideration to issues of minorities and how to deliver for them The purpose of the project is about promoting citizenship a central challenge of the deepening democracy agenda in the region This publication is the second in the series following the publication of South Asia State of Minorities Report 2016 Mapping the Terrain The South Asia Collective is a group of human rights activists and organisations that dream of a just caring and peaceful South Asia that came together in December 2015 to document the condition of the region s minorities religious linguistic ethnic caste and gender among others hoping this would help in better outcomes for South Asia s many marginalised groups

The Qur'an and the Sunnah Taha Jabir Al-Alwani, Imad al Din Khalil, 1995-01-01 For too long now the Qur an and the Sunnah great sources of strength purity knowledge and inspiration for the Ummah have not been adequately tapped Skirting their peripheries or over dwelling on one or two of their multifarious facets and tributaries has done a disservice to the immense potential of the fountainhead while denying the Ummah indeed the whole world innumerable benefits from them Now that the Ummah is becoming increasingly aware of its own problems as well as latent powers and yearns to revive its leading role in the forging of history and civilization the issue of drawing on the wellspring becomes more relevant and urgent Revisiting these two sources is no longer a scholastic academic nostalgic or escapist indulgence but a great journey of discovery that promises untold rewards Paradoxically the journey through the resplendent pages of the Qur an and the Sunnah to a time and place in the past should yield a more mature awareness of the dynamics of social and historical change and a human being s role on earth honing and sharpening the Muslims capacity to deal with the demands of the present moment and the challenges of the future Suggestions for a new reading of the Qur an and the Sunnah have been put forward from Islamic and other angles in the recent years In this book Dr Al Alwani and Dr Khalil two well known Muslim thinkers contribute their views for a proper approach to these sources from within the Islamic framework
