The Fiction Gateway Suzanne Eberlé, Noelle Williamson, 2009 In this guide two experienced school librarians provide a selection of books for librarians teachers and parents The Fiction Gateway is an essential resource that supports individual group and social reading program and provides an instant guide to matching children s interests with suitable reading material Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children s Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children s literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation locale or country are constructed in translated children s literature with the translation of Australian children s fiction into French serving as a case study Issues examined include the selection of books for translation the relationship between children s books and the national and international publishing industry the packaging of translations and the importance of titles blurbs and covers the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children intertextual references the function of the translation in the target culture didactic and pedagogical aims euphemistic language and explication and literariness in translated texts The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback the antipodes the exotic the wild the unknown the void the end of the world the young and innocent nation and the Far West Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban multicultural Aboriginal worldly and inharmonious are seriously under represented The study also shows that French translations are conventional conservative and didactic showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu especially through translated children s literature Childish Morris Gleitzman, 2025-09-02 CHILDISH Me and Dot reckon it s just a word for being a child And having a crack at solving a big problem using only a really good friendship and the world s best dumplings and a thousand kilos of plasticine Like we re doing now Childish is another absolutely cracking book destined to become not only a classic but award worthy Sue Warren Negotiating Childhoods , 2020-05-18 Negotiating Childhoods engages in problematic positioning of the child within society by bringing childhood into the centre of our ontological and epistemological investigations These essays offer a multidisciplinary approach and explore the ways in which such issues impact on our conceptualizing of childhood and the lived realities of children Raising Readers Megan Daley, 2019-04-02 Some kids refuse to read others won t stop not even at the dinner table Either way many parents question the best way to support their child s literacy journey When can you start reading to your child How do you find that special book to inspire a reluctant reader What can you do to keep your tween reading into their adolescent years Award winning
