

Write a letter to 4-5 December all schools in the UK are encouraged to plant trees on their school grounds. Head teacher at a primary school in Devon, Isa Green, has decided (1) giving → to give children at her school a break from ordinary lessons in order to plant elm trees at the school entrance. She agreed (2) for → to plant these trees when she heard about the project, which is run by The Tree Council. She explained (3) to → that the trees are provided by The Woodland Trust, a national charity. She persuaded all classroom teachers at the school (4) getting → to get involved. She also (5) advised to → advised them to make use of the 70-page activity booklet issued free to schools by The Woodland Trust to help them prepare for the event. She encouraged them (6) about using → to use activities such as building sculptures out of pine cones, leaves and other materials that students could collect from a nearby forest. At first, some teachers were worried that students might destroy the trees. Green, however, warned students (7) about not to harm → about harming OR not to harm the trees. She even announced (8) to → that students would be severely punished if they did.
