

Due Diligence Checklist: Purchasing a Business

Buying a business requires careful consideration of various choices. This checklist highlights common areas that must be considered when buying a business. A business can be purchased by purchasing either the business' assets or the shares in the relevant company or interests in the trust.

It is important to ensure that a thorough due diligence review has been conducted before a decision to buy is made. Through the review, you should find out as much information about the business as possible, which you can then discuss with your adviser. You should also consider how embarking on a business venture would fit with your personal circumstances.
