You've probably heard it a million or more times: the first year after nursing school is going to be the worst and the hardest time as a nurse. You won't know how far you've come until you've documented that journey. This journal is meant for new nurses to reflect on their first year after nursing school in any setting, whether it is in a hospital, corrections, physician's office, surgery, ICU, ER, oncology, or any area of nursing. Use this journal to keep track of the ups and downs, your feelings of happiness and sadness, and those days where you doubted your choice to become a nurse. Yes, those days will be frequent. This reflective journal gives you the opportunity to see where you have grown and just how far you have come. Journaling also sets the foundation for growth as a nurse. This is a great gift for any graduating nurse, nursing student, RN, ADN, LPN. One Awesome Nurse Sincere Care Journal, 2019-08-29.
