The Strategy Focused Organization Kaplan Pdf:

The Strategy-focused Organization Robert S. Kaplan, David P. Norton, 2001 In today's business environment strategy has never been more important Yet research shows that most companies fail to execute strategy successfully Behind this abysmal track record lies an undeniable fact many companies continue to use management processes top down financially driven and tactical that were designed to run yesterday's organizations Now the creators of the revolutionary performance management tool called the Balanced Scorecard introduce a new approach that makes strategy a continuous process owned not just by top management but by everyone In The Strategy Focused Organization Robert Kaplan and David Norton share the results of ten years of learning and research into more than 200 companies that have implemented the Balanced Scorecard Drawing from more than twenty in depth case studies including Mobil CIGNA Nova Scotia Power and AT T Canada Kaplan and Norton illustrate how Balanced Scorecard adopters have taken their groundbreaking tool to the next level These organizations have used the scorecard to create an entirely new performance management framework that puts strategy at the center of key management processes and systems Kaplan and Norton articulate the five key principles required for building Strategy Focused Organizations 1 translate the strategy to operational terms 2 align the organization to the strategy 3 make strategy everyone's everyday job 4 make strategy a continual process and 5 mobilize change through strong effective leadership The authors provide a detailed account of how a range of organizations in the private public and nonprofit sectors have deployed these principles to achieve breakthrough sustainable performance improvements Presenting a practical proven framework steeped in rich case study experience The Strategy Focused Organization helps solve a universal management problem not just how to formulate strategy but how to make it work Building on one of the most revolutionary business ideas of our time this important book shows how today's leaders can shape their own companies to meet the challenges and reap the rewards of a new competitive era Robert S Kaplan is the Marvin Bower Professor of Leadership Development at Harvard Business School David P Norton is President of Balanced Scorecard Collaborative Inc Strategy Mapping for Learning Organizations Phil Jones, 2016-04-01 How can we ensure our strategy will succeed especially in changing and uncertain times The answer as explained in Strategy Mapping for Learning Organizations is to become a more responsive organization one that captures its strategy in strategy maps learns from that strategy and can adapt to deliver results For anyone involved in managing strategy and performance applying the powerful strategy mapping techniques will move your balanced scorecard from an operational tool to one of strategy and change It will help you capture communicate and manage your strategy more effectively However strategy can no longer be simply a top down annual process It needs to be more iterative emergent and involving Many agile organizations have adopted rolling plans and budgets To bring greater agility into the wider strategy and performance management processes requires the tools and techniques described in Strategy Mapping for Learning Organizations Phil Jones provides a detailed guide to developing rolling out and managing with modern strategy maps and scorecards building in agility and learning His book incorporates the latest strategic thinking and models It places the balanced scorecard in a wider governance context that includes the management of risk and environmental and social responsibility Fully illustrated with examples from many different organizations this book will help you deliver your strategy better

Corporate Strategy in the Age of Responsibility

Peter McManners,2016-05-13 As the era of ever expanding markets and ample resources ends governments and business will have to behave differently The world is facing weak economic growth limits to affordable resources and increasing concerns about environmental consequences During the boom times governments championed de regulation and business responded by adopting an anything goes attitude In these straitened times strategic analysis has to engage with the challenges that society faces to create resilient corporations fit for the 21st century In Corporate Strategy in the Age of Responsibility Peter McManners who has for nine years run strategy workshops on the Henley MBA focusing on the global business environment sets about providing a strategic framework for navigating the new economic environment Chief Sustainability Officers CSOs now exist but they struggle to find the strategic rationale for the improvements they champion The author argues that their good intentions often lack traction partly because others in management don t get it but also because they are not ambitious enough The book is not about preaching semi charitable behaviour or how to enhance the reputation of the corporation instead it is about surviving and thriving in a challenging and changing environment A corporate audience familiar with strategy books will relate to this book but will find it steers them towards radically new strategic thinking suitable for a turbulent period of transition

Evaluating Strategy Patricia A. Patrizi,Michael Quinn Patton,2010 Strategy has emerged as a watchword of modern change efforts Calls to be strategic are sounded in the private sector government philanthropy and the not for profit sectors Management experts stress the importance of strategic thinking Change agents are urged to act strategically Strategic planning has long been a mainstay of organizational development Leaders in all sectors talk not about theories of change or logic models but about being strategic Strategic thinking Strategic planning Strategic results Being strategic Strategy execution Effective strategies Adapting strategically And now evaluating strategy But strategy is a new unit of analysis for evaluation Traditionally evaluation has focused on projects programs products policies and personnel What does it mean to treat strategy as the evaluation focus as the thing evaluated What is strategy How does one evaluate strategy What are the implications of this new direction for evaluation theory methods practice and ultimately use This issue examines these questions and provides examples of strategy focused evaluations Evaluating strategy is not about evaluating strategic planning or even strategic plans It s about evaluating strategy itself Strategy is the evaluand That poses new challenges and offers new opportunities to meet the information needs of evaluation users For evaluation to be relevant to decision makers and leaders the focus of the evaluation must be on what they are concerned about and what they care about Increasingly they care about identifying and implementing effective strategies That s where evaluation enters the picture Evaluating strategy has the purpose of making strategy more effective differentiating effective from ineffective strategies and contributing to the ongoing development and adaptation of strategy in response to changing conditions and real world complexities Evaluating strategy is a new direction for evaluation one that is likely to take on increasing importance if evaluators learn to do it well This issue takes up that challenge This is the 128th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Evaluation an official publication of the American Evaluation Association
