Female Stereotypes in Religious Traditions Ria Kloppenborg, Wouter J. Hanegraaff, 2018-09-24 This volume contains a collection of studies describing and analyzing stereotypes of women in the religions of Ancient Israel and Mesopotamia and in Zoroastrianism Judaism Medieval Christianity Islam Indian Sufism Hinduism Buddhism Tibetan religions and modern Neopaganism In all these traditions the stereotypes are based on generalizations which are socially culturally or religiously legitimized and which seem to have a lasting influence on society's conceptions of women They represent oversimplified opinions which are however regularly challenged by the women who are affected by them In all traditions the stereotypes are ambiguous either because women have challenged their validity or because historical developments in society have reshaped them They influence public opinion by emphasizing dominant views as a strategy to restrain women and to keep them controlled by the rules and morals of a male dominated society
