like I was watching a movie How then when our knee jerk response is to assign catastrophic events to the incomprehensible or the domain of utter fantasy do we convey the reality of these events What rhetorical strategies are at our disposal when we no longer have an immediate relationship to them When the last survivors of these catastrophic events are gone how will we relate to representations of these events What rhetorical strategies will prove most useful in conveying the historical significance of these events even when the physical traces are gone This book addresses these questions The Search for "reality" Michael Tobias,1998 This ambitious book from author producer and director Michael Tobias draws together the voices of 40 renowned documentary filmmakers from around the world These contributors shed unique light on contemporary culture and aesthetics the filmmaker s commitment to the documentary form and the documentary production process from concept to marketplace They also probe provocative questions What is reality in a documentary Can and should there be objectivity in a documentary What is the role of social advocacy in a documentary How do new production technologies affect a documentary s message This is the first book that brings together an international roster of documentary filmmakers to speak about the very heart and soul of their art It should prove to be an invaluable guide for both professionals and students and will appeal to general filmgoers as well Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 Robert Brent Toplin,2006 Examines the development of Michael Moore s ideas and the evolution of his filmmaking then dissects Fahrenheit 9 11 and explores the many claims and disagreements about the movie s truthfulness This study shows that Michael Moore s film did more than shake up a nation The Filmmaker and the Prostitute Chris Berry,Annette Hamilton,Laleen Jayamanne,1997 Dennis O Rourke s The Good Woman of Bangkok This collection offers a comprehensive coverage of the debates surrounding Dennis O Rourke s controversial film It brings together newspaper and journal reviews together with theoretical essays Like a crystal THE GOOD WOMAN OF BANGKOK refracts currents of contemporary thinking on alterity feminism postcoloniality and globalisation Reality Television, Affect and Intimacy Misha Kavka,2008-10-31 Reality Television Affect and Intimacy shifts current discussions of media and reality from the informative to the affective from knowledge to feelings In reality television Misha Kavka argues everyday reality is the ground for an experience of immediacy or televisual intimacy that is self evidently mediated and performed The book explores this paradox by conceptualising the relation between affect and media For Kavka affect matters because the feelings generated across the screen are real in a material way Investigating such concepts as publicity and privacy in reality TV families performance technologies in Big Brother arranged marriages in romance reality TV and gender race and sexuality in Survivor and Project Runway she argues that affect is the core reality of a public sphere that is reconfigured by its viewing patterns Renewing attention to the complexities of affective intimacies this book offers the rich realities of feeling as a critical alternative to traditional communication models History and Theory ,1992
