HARRIS, 2018 British Travel Writers in Morocco, 1856-1937 Lahoucine Aammari, 2026-01-05 British Travel Writers in Morocco 1856 1937 Discursive Encounters reflects the growing academic interest in travel writing as a literary genre shaped by colonial and imperial motivations that transcend both literary canons and geographical boundaries The book offers a compelling overview of British travelogues about Morocco during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries providing new insights for Maghrebi and postcolonial studies Owing to its interdisciplinary nature the travelogue genre surpasses traditional borders to present elaborate and critically engaging accounts of the various though often asymmetric physical and discursive encounters that occurred during both the pre colonial and colonial periods The critical and intellectual significance of this genre is informed by post structuralist colonialist and modernist theories with their diverse analytical tools as well as by the postcolonial commitment to interrogate colonial legacies and archives The book analyzes a group of texts written by British travellers in Morocco between 1856 and 1937 including Walter B Harris Robert S Watson Joseph Thomson Hugh Stutfield Frances Macnab and Richard C Woodville among others These travel writers provide substantial and heterogenous accounts that meticulously record describe and translate the constitution and evolution of Britain s cultural imaginary and consciousness of Morocco its dissemination of human civilisation and its imperial ambitions assumptions and rhetoric

Morocco That Was - Primary Source Edition Walter Harris,2014-03 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book

Sufism in Morocco's Religious Politics John C. Thibdeau,2023-07-25 This book outlines the role of Sufism in Moroccan politics in the twenty first century through a comparative study of contemporary Sufi organizations The author begins his analysis by highlighting the strategies employed by the Moroccan state over the past twenty years aimed at regulating and producing an authorized Moroccan Islam in the kingdom Despite these policies of spiritual security and spiritual diplomacy including the state sponsorship of Sufi organizations the author argues that this has not decreased diversity nor produced a banal interpretation of Islam but rather given rise to diverse articulations and performances of this religiosity Through a comparative analysis of three Sufi organizations based on eighteen months of fieldwork two of which have never before been studied the author brings into relief the spaces of creative enactment of Sufism as an ethical tradition Ultimately it is argued that each Sufi organization reflects a different refraction of i s n a concept emphasising the cultivation of public piety which underpins the Moroccan state s formulation of Islam Focused on both theoretical contributions to Islamic studies and topical treatments of geopolitical issues like spiritual diplomacy the Western Sahara and Morocco Algeria the book spans multiple disciplines including anthropology religious studies sociology and political science
