The Stranger (English Edition) Albert Camus, 2016-02-20 The Outsider or The Stranger French L'etranger is a novel by Albert Camus published in 1942 Its theme and outlook are often cited as exemplars of Camus's philosophy of the absurd and existentialism though Camus personally rejected the latter label The titular character is Meursault an indifferent French Algerian a citizen of France domiciled in North Africa a man of the Mediterranean an homme du midi yet one who hardly partakes of the traditional Mediterranean culture who after attending his mother's funeral apathetically kills an Arab man whom he recognises in French Algiers The story is divided into two parts presenting Meursault's first person narrative view before and after the murder respectively In January 1955 Camus wrote I summarized The Stranger a long time ago with a remark I admit was highly paradoxical In our society any man who does not weep at his mother's funeral runs the risk of being sentenced to death I only meant that the hero of my book is condemned because he does not play the game warning Ethical Issues in Twentieth Century French Fiction C. Davis,1999-12-08 This book examines ethical problems raised by a number of key twentieth century theoretical and fictional texts by authors such as Levinas Sartre Beauvoir Yourcenar Duras and Genet It argues that even texts which apparently espouse ethical positions based on respect for and responsibility towards others frequently depict conflict as an insurmountable aspect of human relations This is reflected at an aesthetic level as these texts both describe the struggle for supremacy and replicate it in their relation to their readers
