Chapter 25 The Conservative Tide Answers:

Liberal Hearts and Conservative Brains Ron Lipsman, 2007 Talk radio hosts seem to believe conservatives are from Mars and liberals are from Venus two different species in other words Ron Lipsman's new book uses a mix of rational analysis and personal history to suggest there may be deeper psychological laws at work here that help shape our worldviews He's on to something Elias Crim Publishing Consultant Professor Lipsman argues for a correlation between age and political philosophy which asserts that young people tend to gravitate toward liberalism while older people are usually more comfortable with conservatism and that additionally among the people who change their political preference over time more go from liberal to conservative than vice versa and finally he assesses the strengths of these trends examines the most interesting counter examples to these trends namely premature conservatives and aging liberals and explains what motivates them presents a history of the liberal conservative divide in America and then augments it with an assessment of its current status as well as a prediction of its future An insightful and witty examination of the values and beliefs that divide liberals and conservatives in America today A penetrating look at the concept of the aging liberal especially as it pertains to the Jewish and academic communities Bruce Bartlett nationally syndicated columnist The Man Who Invented Conservatism Daniel J.
