Learning Not To Drown Anna Shinoda:

Learning Not to Drown Anna Shinoda, 2014-04 There is a pecking order to every family Seventeen year old Clare is the overprotected baby Peter is the typical rebellious middle child and Luke is the can't do wrong favorite To their mother they are a normal happy family And then there are the roles we give ourselves Clare the ambitious striver Peter the angry ticking time bomb and Luke a drug addicted convicted felon who has been in and out of jail for as long as Clare can remember To Clare they are a family on the verge of disaster Clare has long refused to believe her brother is truly bad he dotes her doesn't hate her But as Clare starts piecing together the truth about her brother's stints in jail it starts changing the way she thinks about him It has also changed the way the community views the family The only thing it hasn't changed is the way their mother feels about Luke Each time she welcomes him home with open arms and brushes off his crimes as wrong place and wrong time Clare can feel a little piece of her happy home life being taken away And when her mother does the unthinkable takes Clare's hard earned college savings to post bail for Luke's latest transgression Clare has to decide if sticking up for herself and her future means selfishly turning her back on family or if it's the only way to keep herself from drowning along with them Debut novelist Anna Shinoda's raw gritty powerful novel cuts right to the bone and brings to life the skeletons that lurk in the closet

The Milk of Birds Sylvia Whitman, 2013-04-16 This timely heartrending novel tells the moving story of a friendship between two girls one an American teen one a victim of the crisis in Darfur. Know that there are many words behind the few on this paper. Fifteen year old Nawra lives in Darfur Sudan in a camp for refugees displaced by the Janjaweed's trail of murder and destruction. Nawra cannot read or write but when a nonprofit organization called Save the Girls pairs her with an American donor Nawra dictates her thank you letters. Putting her experiences into words begins to free her from her devastating past and to brighten the path to her future. K C is an American teenager from Richmond Virginia who hates reading and writing or anything that smacks of school. But as Nawra pours grief and joy into her letters she inspires K C to see beyond her own struggles And as K C opens her heart in her responses to Nawra she becomes both a dedicated friend and a passionate activist for Darfur In this poetic tale of unlikely sisterhood debut author Sylvia Whitman captures the friendship between two girls who teach each other compassion and share a remarkable bond that bridges two continents
