Literature and the Writing Process Elizabeth McMahan, 2005

Reading, Learning, Teaching Toni Morrison Karen F. Stein, 2009 Reading Learning Teaching Toni Morrison draws on contemporary scholarship and Morrison's own commentary to explicate all of her novels published to date including her 2008 novel A Mercy Morrison the 1993 Nobel Prize winner is an unabashedly confrontational author Her profound and complex novels address problems such as slavery violence poverty and sexual abuse Morrison's work encompasses a project of total cultural renewal she re imagines and reaffirms the experience of African Americans from the earliest days of slavery up to the present avoiding stereotypes or oversimplification She employs African and Western literary traditions and conventions as a basis for both structure and critique re writing some of the master narratives of American culture and history This book analyzes Morrison's novels in the context of African American history and literature and provides supplemental material to guide teachers and students to understand and appreciate Morrison's novels

McMahan, Susan X. Day, Linda Coleman, Robert Funk, 2017-01-05 The Cumulative Book Index, 1907 A world list of books in the English language Literature and the Writing Process Elizabeth McMahan, 2005 A Short Guide to Writing about Biology Jan A. Pechenik, 2024-11-20 For almost four decades A Short Guide to Writing About Biology has been an indispensable resource. Noted biologist Jan Pechenik guides readers in acquiring the skills necessary to become critical thinkers and accomplished writers. Biology is a way of thinking about the world; it is also about communicating information accurately, logically, clearly, honestly, and concisely. The tenth edition outlines all aspects of writing well while also providing readers with procedures for developing strong research questions, logically explaining findings, and supporting claims with evidence. All good writing involves both a struggle for understanding and a struggle to express that understanding. The author delivers sage advice in an accessible, entertaining style to help readers learn to write compelling papers and to enhance their understanding.

Assessing and Correcting Reading and Writing Difficulties Thomas G. Gunning, 2002 This text provides numerous examples and thorough coverage of procedures for assessing and instructing struggling readers of all ages. In keeping with current theory, the text emphasizes prevention and early intervention. It is based on the premise that student performance is variable and that assessment and instruction are planned and modified to meet the varied needs and levels of students. Gunning does not subscribe to a medical model that emphasizes deficiencies but rather focuses on what students can do. This text calls for inclusion, not exclusion, but recognizes that struggling learners need expert, carefully planned assessment and instruction. Assessment coverage includes a grounding in basic concepts of tests and measurement. While formal, standardized measures are described, emphasis is placed upon informal but highly regarded techniques such as the informal reading inventory, miscue analysis, running records, observation, think-alouds, holistic scoring of writing, and portfolio assessment. In addition to chapters devoted specifically to assessment, ways to connect assessment and instruction are mentioned throughout the text. Coverage of instructional techniques is thorough and practical. Nine chapters are devoted to instructional techniques.

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002-02 Stronger Writing Skills for Teens Gregory Berry, 2018-08-16 Stronger Writing Skills for Teens offers middle and high school teachers strategies, techniques, and materials for teaching adolescent writing in a variety of modes. A practical and useful resource for classroom teachers, the book focuses on quality writing instruction within the modes of writing as defined by Common Core State Standards. Examples of student work are included to illustrate effectively designed assignments and strategies for writing and revising. It includes methods for teaching vocabulary and academic language to help students improve word choice and use of language in their writing. Tools for assessing and grading student writing are also included, as well as suggestions and resources for effectively using writing rubrics and scoring guides. Narrative, expository, explanatory, argument, and research writing are discussed with specific strategies, suggested materials, and ways to approach the modes. Teachers will also find suggestions for helping students learn to incorporate multimodal text into their writing and successfully write in digital.
