Prisoner Of Tehran Chapter 1:

The Gift of Memoir Diane Taylor, 2015-01-06 The Gift of Memoir is a wonderful guide for Memoir Writing I especially appreciate how Taylor examines the memoirs of historic well known or highly controversial people for examples of good craft and content and to illustrate the many quirks and magnificence of the human journey Pegi Evers author of Ancient Spirit Rising Every writer can benefit from reading Diane Taylor's wonderfully clear down to earth practical and inspiring book But for the memoirist in particular Taylor's expertise is invaluable Philip Marchand National Post columnist and author of Ghost Empire How the French Almost Conquered North America The Gift of Memoir is Diane Taylor's gift to writers of every kind but especially those with a personal or family story to tell In words that are themselves a stellar example of literary craftsmanship Taylor shows writers how to show up open up and write She shares moving stories from her own adventurous life Her short chapters full of practical advice and inspiring examples cover such topics as Establishing a writing ritual Why write memoir Joining a writing community for diversity and connection Telling the truth when you aren't sure Journaling to unlock the soul How to approach traumatic events Four strategies to retrieve memories The ingredients of a good anecdote The several senses not just five for vivid writing How to choose a form that fits your writing The revision process Iran Awakening Shirin Ebadi, Azadeh Moaveni, 2011-05-18 The moving inspiring memoir of one of the great women of our times Shirin Ebadi winner of the 2003 Nobel Peace Prize and advocate for the oppressed whose spirit has remained strong in the face of political persecution and despite the challenges she has faced raising a family while pursuing her work Best known in this country as the lawyer working tirelessly on behalf of Canadian photojournalist Zara Kazemi raped tortured and murdered in Iran Dr Ebadi offers us a vivid picture of the struggles of one woman against the system The book movingly chronicles her childhood in a loving untraditional family her upbringing before the Revolution in 1979 that toppled the Shah her marriage and her religious faith as well as her life as a mother and lawyer battling an oppressive regime in the courts while bringing up her girls at home Outspoken controversial Shirin Ebadi is one of the most fascinating women today She rose quickly to become the first female judge in the country but when the religious authorities declared women unfit to serve as judges she was demoted to clerk in the courtroom she had once presided over She eventually fought her way back as a human rights lawyer defending women and children in politically charged cases that most lawyers were afraid to represent She has been arrested and been the target of assassination but through it all has spoken out with quiet bravery on behalf of the victims of injustice and discrimination and become a powerful voice for change almost universally embraced as a hero Her memoir is a gripping story a must read for anyone interested in Zara Kazemi's case in the life of a remarkable woman or in understanding the political and religious upheaval in our world Prisoner of Tehran Marina Nemat, 2007 An account of a childhood interrupted an intimate portrait of revolutionary Iran and a remarkable story of one woman's struggle for life and liberty Iran Reframed Narges Bajoghli, 2019-09-24 A Middle East scholar shares an inside look at what it means to be pro regime in Iran and the debates around the future of the Islamic Republic More than half of Iran's citizens were not alive at the time of the 1979 Revolution Now entering its fifth decade in power the Iranian regime faces the paradox of any successful revolution how to transmit the commitments of its political project to the next generation New media ventures supported by the Islamic Republic attempt to win the hearts and minds of younger Iranians Yet members of this new generation whether dissidents or fundamentalists are increasingly skeptical of these efforts Iran Reframed offers unprecedented access to those who wield power in Iran as they debate and define the future of the Republic Over ten years Narges Bajoghli met with men in Iran's Revolutionary Guard Ansar Hezbollah and Basij paramilitary organizations to investigate how their media producers developed strategies to court Iranian youth Readers come to know these men what the regime means to them and their anxieties about the future of their revolutionary project This book offers a multilayered story about what it means to be pro regime in the Islamic Republic challenging everything we think we know about Iran and revolution

Bordering on War Shaherzad Ahmadi, 2024-12-03 A study of transnational identity migration and state loyalties told through the social and political history of Iran's Khuzestan province In 1980 Saddam Hussein's Ba'athist forces invaded Khuzestan one of the oldest and richest provinces in Iran triggering the Iran Iraq War Shaherzad Ahmadi's Bordering on War examines the social history of Khuzestan and sheds light on how border dwellers provincial leaders and migrants in the region shaped Iran and Iraq's history before during and after the war Drawing from a rich collection of Persian and Arabic language archival sources rarely used by western scholars due to restrictions in Iran Ahmadi's research focuses on Arab Iranians and argues that Iranian border dwellers and migrants formed local non national loyalties thereby eschewing bureaucratic pressures to confine loyalties to a single nation state The transnational character and ethnically diverse composition of Khuzestan especially in the oil rich towns on the southwestern border led many including Iraq's Ba'ath Party to question the national belonging of Arab Iranians Bordering on War contributes to a wider discussion about the ability of individuals and communities to exert agency through migration trade education and other activities

Alternative Iran Pamela Karimi, 2022-09-27 Alternative Iran offers a unique contribution to the field of contemporary art investigating how Iranian artists engage with space and site amid the pressures of the art market and the state's regulatory regimes Since the 1980s political economic and intellectual forces have driven Iran's creative class toward increasingly original forms of artmaking not meant for official venues Instead these art forms appear in private homes with trusted audiences derelict buildings leftover urban zones and remote natural sites While many of these venues operate independently others are fully sanctioned by the state Drawing on interviews with over a hundred artists gallerists theater experts musicians and designers Pamela Karimi throws into sharp relief the extraordinary art and performance activities that have received little attention outside Iran Attending to nonconforming curatorial projects independent guerrilla installations escapist practices and tacitly subversive performances Karimi discloses the push and pull between the art community and the authorities and discusses myriad instances of tentative coalition as opposed to outright partnership or uncompromising resistance Illustrated with more than 120 full color images this book provides entry into unique artistic experiences without catering to voyeuristic curiosity around Iran s often perceived underground culture New Histories of Art in the Global Postwar Era Flavia Frigeri, Kristian Handberg, 2021-03-24 This book maps key moments in the history of postwar art from a global perspective The reader is introduced to a new globally oriented approach to art artists museums and movements of the postwar era 1945-70 Specifically this book bridges the gap between historical artistic centers such as Paris and New York and peripheral loci Through case studies previously unknown networks circulations divides and controversies are brought to light From the development of Ethiopian modernism to the showcase of Brazilian modernity this book provides readers with a new set of coordinates and a reassessment of well trodden art historical narratives around modernism This book will be of interest to scholars in art historiography art history exhibition and curatorial studies modern art and globalization The Adventures of Hajji Baba of Ispahan.
