Book of Beasts Elizabeth Morrison, 2019 A celebration of the visual contributions of the bestiary one of the most popular types of illuminated books during the Middle Ages and an exploration of its lasting legacy Brimming with lively animals both real and fantastic the bestiary was one of the great illuminated manuscript traditions of the Middle Ages Encompassing imaginary creatures such as the unicorn siren and griffin exotic beasts including the tiger elephant and ape as well as animals native to Europe like the beaver dog and hedgehog the bestiary is a vibrant testimony to the medieval understanding of animals and their role in the world So iconic were the stories and images of the bestiary that its beasts essentially escaped from the pages appearing in a wide variety of manuscripts and other objects including tapestries ivories metalwork and sculpture With over 270 color illustrations and contributions by twenty five leading scholars this gorgeous volume explores the bestiary and its widespread influence on medieval art and culture as well as on modern and contemporary artists like Pablo Picasso and Damien Hirst Published to accompany an exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center May 14 to August 18 2019

The Modernist Bestiary Timothy Mathews, Sarah Kay, 2020-07-08 The Modernist Bestiary centres on Le Bestiaire ou Cortège d'Orphée 1911 a multimedia collaborative work by French Polish poet Guillaume Apollinaire and French artist Raoul Dufy and its homonym The Bestiary or Procession of Orpheus 1979 by British artist Graham Sutherland Rather than reconstructing the lineage of these two compositions the book uncovers the aesthetic and intellectual processes involved that operate in different times places and media The Apollinaire and Dufy Bestiary is an open ended collaboration a feature that Sutherland develops in his re-visiting and this book shows how these neglected works are caught up in many faceted networks of traditions and genres These include Orphic poetry from the past contemporary musical settings and bestiary writing from its origins to the present The nature of productive dialogue between thought and art and the refracted light they throw on each other are explored in each of the pieces in the book and the aesthetic experience emerges as generative rather than reductive or complacent The contributors encounters with these works take the form of poetry and essays all moving freely between different disciplines and practices humanistic and posthumanist critical dimensions as well as different animals and art forms They draw on disciplines ranging from music art history translation Classical poetry and French poetry and are nurtured by approaches including phenomenology cultural studies sound studies and critical animal studies Collectively the book shows that the aesthetic encounter by nature affective is by nature also interdisciplinary and motivating and that it spurs the critical in addressing the complex issues of humananimality

A Bestiary Boynton Merrill,1976 These original poems describe in a manner at once allusive and concrete a number of common animals The creatures in Mr Merrill s bestiary reflect upon the world and their places in it They speak of their fears conceits triumphs and disappointments Mr Merrill speaks of the raccoon who Teaches its foolish children To know they take communion When they wash their food in water of the mole I am not sure that I have eyes But I have never wept of the stallion Who hates with lifted head He records the firefly I was wiped into a comet Across the face of childhood the nighthawk I weave sunset fabric Out of thunderheads the moth I don t know why I love Dim light and the crow The other birds are idiots This volume is not however a random collection of animal poems rather it presents the reflections of 28 separate personalities which merge into a single statement Each of the animals represented in these poems is handsomely illustrated in an original line and wash drawing by Robert James Foose a well known Kentucky artist A Peterborough psalter and bestiary of the fourteenth century Roxburghe Club,1921 Bestiary Francis J. The Bestiary Nicholas Christopher,2007-06-26 From a writer of remarkable gifts Borges with emotional weight comes a tale that is at once a fantastical historical mystery a haunting love story and a glimpse into the uncanny the quest for a long lost book detailing the animals left off Noah s Ark Xeno Atlas grows up in the Bronx his Sicilian grandmother s strange stories of animal spirits his only escape from the legacy of his mother s early death and his stern father s long absences as a common seaman Shunted off to an isolated boarding school with his father s activities abroad and the source of his newfound wealth grown increasingly mysterious Xeno turns his early fascination with animals into a personal obsession his search for the Caravan Bestiary This medieval text lost for eight hundred years supposedly details the animals not granted passage on the Ark griffins hippogriffs manticores and basilisks the vanished remnants of a lost world sometimes glimpsed in the shadowy recesses of our own Xeno's quest takes him from the tenements of New York to the jungles of Vietnam to the ancient libraries of Europe but it is only by riddling out his own family secrets that he can hope to find what he is looking for A story of panoramic scope and intellectual suspense The Bestiary is ultimately a tale of heartbreak and redemption
