The American Shorthorn Herd Book, 1879 The American Short-horn Herd Book Lewis Falley Allen, William T. Bailey, 1904 Dramatic Mirror and Theatre World, 1921 A Piece of the Action Eithne Quinn, 2019-12-31

Hollywood is often thought of and certainly by Hollywood itself as a progressive haven. However in the decade after the passage of the Civil Rights Act the film industry grew deeply conservative when it came to conflicts over racial justice. Amid black self assertion and white backlash many of the most heated struggles in film were fought over employment. In A Piece of the Action Eithne Quinn reveals how Hollywood catalyzed wider racial politics through representation on screen as well as in battles over jobs and resources behind the scenes. Based on extensive archival research and detailed discussions of films like In the Heat of the Night, Sweet Sweetback's Baadasssss Song, Super Fly, Claudine and Blue Collar this volume considers how issues of race and labor played out on the screen during the tumultuous early years of affirmative action. Quinn charts how black actors leveraged their performance capital to force meaningful changes to employment and film content. She examines the emergence of Sidney Poitier and other African Americans as A list stars, the careers of black filmmakers such as Melvin Van Peebles and Ossie Davis, and attempts by the federal government and black advocacy groups to integrate cinema. Quinn also highlights the limits of Hollywood's liberalism, showing how predominantly white filmmakers, executives, and unions hid the persistence of racism behind feel good stories and public relations avowals of tolerance. A rigorous analysis of the deeply rooted patterns of racial exclusion in American cinema, A Piece of the Action sheds light on why conservative and corporate responses to antiracist and labor activism remain pervasive in today's Hollywood.

The New Lives of Images Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2025-09-30 In this ambitious new work, eco philosopher and cultural theorist Adrian Ivakhiv presents an incisive new way of thinking about images and imagination. Drawing upon an immense range of materials, Ivakhiv reassesses the place of imagination in cultural life, analyzing how people have interacted with images in the past and the ways that digital media are profoundly altering these relationships today. The book contributes powerfully to the study of visual culture and digital media and provides provocative interpretations of a range of important artists and media movements, from the work of photographer Edward Burtynsky, the ambitious multi screen installations of John Akomfrah, the abstract art of Swedish spiritualist Hilma af Klint, and the Afrofuturism of jazz musicians like Sun Ra, and poet Alexis Pauline Gumbs, to the ever expanding universe of animal videos on YouTube. Along the way, the book delves into animacy and religious imagery, iconophilia and iconoclasm, divination and prophecy, truthiness and enchantment, networks, online communities, and artificial intelligence, the political and affective economies of digital media, and the role of utopian futurism in the present climate colonial Anthropocene predicament. The result is a vital contribution toward a more empowering conception of the creative imagination and its possibilities in today's emerging digital ecology.
