Every Child an Achiever David W. Russell, 2002 The Perfect Score Project Debbie Stier, 2014-02-25 The Perfect Score Project is an indispensable guide to acing the SAT as well as the affecting story of a single mom's quest to light a fire under her teenage son. It all began as an attempt by Debbie Stier to help her high school age son Ethan who would shortly be studying for the SAT. Aware that Ethan was a typical teenager i.e. completely uninterested in any test and that a mind boggling menu of test prep options existed she decided on his behalf to sample as many as she could to create the perfect SAT test prep recipe. Debbie's quest turned out to be an exercise in both hilarity and heartbreak as she took the SAT seven times in one year and in between went to school on standardized testing. Here she reveals why the SAT has become so important the cottage industries it has spawned what really works in preparing for the test and what is a waste of time. Both a toolbox of fresh tips and an amusing snapshot of parental love and wisdom colliding with teenage apathy. The Perfect Score Project rivets. In the book Debbie does it all wrestles with Kaplan and Princeton Review enrolls in Kumon navigates khanacademy.org meets regularly with a premier grammar coach takes a battery of intelligence tests and even cadges free lessons from the world's most prestigious and expensive test prep company. Along the way she answers the questions that plague every test prep rookie including: When do I start? Do the brand name test prep services really deliver? Which should I go with a tutor an SAT class or self study? Does test location really matter? How do I find the right tutor? How do SAT scores affect merit aid and What's the one thing I need to know? The Perfect Score Project's combination of charm authority and unexpected poignancy makes it one of the most compulsively readable guides to SAT test prep ever and a book that will make you think hard about what really matters.

Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra, 2020-04-28 An up close look at the education arms race of after school learning academic competitions and the perceived failure of even our best schools to educate children. Beyond soccer leagues music camps and drama lessons today's youth are in an education arms race that begins in elementary school. In Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra uncovers the growing world of high achievement education and the after school learning centers spelling bees and math competitions that it has spawned. It is a world where immigrant families vie with other Americans to be at the head of the class putting in hours of studying and testing in order to gain a foothold in the supposed meritocracy of American public education. A world where enrichment centers like Kumon have seen 194 percent growth since 2002 and target children as young as three. Even families and teachers who avoid after school academics are getting swept up. Drawing on over 100 in depth interviews with teachers tutors principals children and parents Dhingra delves into the why people participate in this phenomenon and examines how schools families and communities play their part. Moving past Tiger Mom stereotypes he addresses why Asian American and white families practice what he calls hyper education and whether or not it makes sense. By taking a behind the scenes look at the Scripps National Spelling Bee other national competitions and learning centers Dhingra shows why good schools good grades and good behavior are seen as not enough for high achieving students and their parents and why the education arms race is likely to continue to expand
