Monmonier How To Lie With Maps:

How to Lie with Maps Mark Monmonier, 2018-04-13 An updated edition of the humorous informative and perceptive guide to how maps can lead us astray Toronto Globe and Mail An instant classic when first published in 1991 How to Lie with Maps revealed how the choices mapmakers make consciously or unconsciously mean that every map inevitably presents only one of many possible stories about the places it depicts The principles Mark Monmonier outlined back then remain true today despite significant technological changes in the making and use of maps The introduction and spread of digital maps and mapping software however have added new wrinkles to the ever evolving landscape of modern mapmaking Fully updated for the digital age this new edition of How to Lie with Maps examines the myriad ways that technology offers new opportunities for cartographic mischief deception and propaganda While retaining the same brevity range and humor as its predecessors this third edition includes significant updates throughout as well as new chapters on image maps prohibitive cartography and online maps It also includes an expanded section of color images and an updated list of sources for further reading Praise for previous editions of How to Lie with Maps Will leave you much better defended against cheap atlases shoddy journalism unscrupulous advertisers predatory special interest groups and others who may use or abuse maps at your expense Christian Science Monitor

How to Lie with Maps Mark S. Monmonier, 1991 Explains the basic principles of map making tells how to evaluate maps critically and looks at Nazi propaganda maps real estate developers plans and environmental impact maps

Lived Topographies and Their Mediatonal Forces Gary Backhaus, John Murungi, 2005-01-01 This collection explores the various forms of narrative semiotic and technological mediation that shape the experience of place From the East End of London to Navajo lands to Ground Zero Lived Topographies examines the great effect of language mass media surveillance and other incursions of the contemporary world on topographical experience and description Gary Backhaus and John Murungi have assembled a wide array of scholars to provide an interdisciplinary approach to this subject giving this collection a unique perspective on the phenomenology of place BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
