Mr Mkhizes Portrait:

Mr. Mkhize's Portrait & Other Stories from the New South Africa Adam Broomberg, Oliver Chanarin, Photographers' Gallery, 2004 We met Mr Mkhize in a migrant worker's hostel in a township outside Johannesburg South Africa He told us that he had been photographed twice before in his life The first was for his Passbook a document which allowed the apartheid government to control his movements The second was for his ID book which allowed him to vote in the country's first democratic elections Ten years later we met him and took his picture Adam Broomberg Mandlilenkosi Noqhayi a circumcision initiate who is studying to become an accountant and Mishack Masilela a contestant at the Miss Gay Soweto competition who wants to be able to marry the man that he loves Threaded through these personal tales and glimpses of everyday life we gain an understanding of the wider issues facing South Africa today such as the housing shortage high unemployment widespread violent crime the impact of economic migrants and perhaps most significant of all the widespread effect of the AIDS epidemic But it is also a story of optimism and empowerment After 10 years of freedom South Africa has one of the most progressive constitutions in the world and the strongest economies in Africa These photographs were recently displayed in Johannesburg at the new Constitutional Court built on the site of The Fort the infamous jail used by the apartheid government to imprison activists such as Ghandi and Mandela Local Acts of Violence: Global Issues Rochelle Green, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Local Acts of Violence Global Issues shares a history of violence as a means of questioning how we should contend with the often exceedingly disturbing instances of violence in our shared cultural and national pasts Ecotopia Brian Wallis, International Center of Photography, 2006 Works by more than 40 artists and photographers from 20 countries documenting recent environmental disasters and exploring the effects of environmental change around the world through their art Photo Art Uta Grosenick, Thomas Seelig, 2007 As digital technologies continue to impact photography there are those image makers who rise above the fray to produce compelling work Photo Art Photography in the 21st Century features 120 of the latest greatest and newly up and coming artists in a luscious compendium each showcased in a four page spread with texts by sixteen top curators and theorists and a glossary of important terms More than a coffee table book Photo Art reads like an international art fair between covers Publisher's website The British Journal of Photography, 2004 So Now Then David Company, Martha Langford, Jan-Erik Lundström, 2006 Bookforum, 2005 Art South Africa, 2004 Tribune for Victory and Socialism, 2004 Liverpool and Manchester Photographic Journal, 2004 The Book Review Digest, 2005 Contemporary, 2004 Concord Weekly, 1984-07 Black Newspapers Index, 2005 Portrait and Documentary Photography in Post-apartheid South Africa Paula Alexandra Horta, 2011 This thesis will explore how South African portrait and documentary photography produced between 1994 and 2004 has contributed to a wider understanding of the country's painful past and for some hopeful for others bleak present In particular it will examine two

South African photographic works which are paradigmatic of the political and social changes that marked the first decade after the fall of apartheid focusing on the empowerment of both photographers and subjects The first Jillian Edelstein s 2001 Truth Lies Stories from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa captures the faces and records the stories of perpetrators and victims who gave their testimonies to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa from 1996 to 2000 The second Adam Broomberg and Oliver Chanarin s 2004a Mr Mkhize s Portrait Other Stories from the New South Africa documents the changed unchanged realities of a democratic country ten years after apartheid The work of these photographers is showcased for its specificity historicity and uniqueness In both works the images are charged with emotion Viewed on their own uncaptioned the photographs have the capacity to unsettle the viewer but in both cases a compelling intermeshing of image and text heightens their resonance and enables further possibilities for interpretation In their contributions to the critical theory of photography Roland Barthes Victor Burgin and Max Kozloff underscore the centrality of the interplay between image and text in the meaning making process anchoring a critical engagement with photography Burgin 1982 states that Even the uncaptioned photograph framed and isolated on a gallery is invaded by language when it is looked at and Kozloff 1987 claims that However they are perceived images have to be mediated by words This thesis singles out emotionally charged and forceful photographs in Edelstein Broomberg and Chanarin s repertoire to consider both the complex process of the construction and interpretation of photographic meaning and question if when photographs do in fact depend on language Central to the architecture of photography is the layering of the representations firstly through the specific photographic language and form of address which characterises the portrait genre and secondly through the verbal text accompanying the images I argue that the viewer s experience of the photograph unfolds at two distinct moments of viewing The first moment is defined by the raw encounter with the photograph mediated by an affective response to its emotional or symbolic content and the second moment encompasses the response to the photograph s compositional elements or signifying units in articulation with the text narrative accompanying it This analysis brings to the fore the relation and exchange between photographer and subject and ultimately between photographer subject and viewer Emmanuel Levinas and Hannah Arendt s theoretical insights provide a platform for exploring the lived concrete experience of ethical choice and action at the core of the photographer subject viewer humanistic triangulated relationship Germane to this discussion Ariella Azoulay s 2008 conception of the civil contract of photography extends the possibility of questioning and or examining firstly the complex intertwining roles of the several participants in the photographic act encounter and secondly the photographic image as an intercultural nexus wherein photographer subject and viewer meet The triangulation of photographer subject viewer which constitutes the guiding thread of this study is further explored and illuminated from the perspective of Mikhail Bakhtin s conceptualisation of the utterance enabling me to engage with the dialogical dimension of photographic practice The affinities between Levinas and Bakhtin two philosophers of alterity revealed through a common language of responsibility in the relation with the other inform my reading and discussion of the ethical project of photography in post apartheid South Africa Phenomenology narrative theory and social semiotic visual analysis guide the methodology adopted in this study creating a synergy between a reflective dialogical a discursive sociological and a more semiological aesthetic approach From this perspective my concern will be in establishing the interdisciplinarity between Visual Culture and Cultural Studies and in so doing I will explore the relationship between the photograph documentary practice social processes modes of representation and or visual testimony confirming Irit Rogoff s 1998 claim that I mages do not stay within discrete disciplinary fields since neither the eye nor the psyche operates along or recognizes such divisions Instead they provide the opportunity for a mode of new cultural writing existing at the intersections of both objectivities and subjectivities Number Four ,2006 In 1995 the historic decision was taken to locate the new constitutional court building on the site of the Old Fort the city s notorious prison popularly known as Number Four Famously this prison housed two icons of liberation of the 20th Century Mahatma Gandhi and Nelson Mandela as well as thousands of ordinary South Africans who were imprisoned under colonial and apartheid regimes simply because of the colour of their skin The new constitutional court and the old prison buildings that surround it have been developed into Constitution Hill a thriving complex of heritage sites and museums exhibition and performance spaces offices and other tourist facilities This book tells the story of the making of Constitution Hill its transformation from a derelict prison site into the home of the constitutional court and a prime tourist destination in inner city Johannesburg The story is told through a series of quotes so as to give the reader a first hand account of the many different people and the complex issues involved in making this extraordinary dream into a reality

Update ,1999 Consists of separate newsletters from each of the 4 area studies centers with collective title at head of first section Each newsletter has also a distinctive title for each issue Mandela Bill Clinton,Tutu, Archbishop Desmond,2006-10 Describes and depicts the life and times of the South African president who spent twenty seven years in jail for his political beliefs and includes interviews by such figures as Bill Clinton Tony Blair and Bono Creating Books for the Young in the New South Africa Barbara A. Lehman,Jay Heale,Anne Hill,2014-10-01 This collection of essays analyzes the work of 29 authors and illustrators South African children s and youth literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children s books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children s literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U S and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices Frontline ,1989
