

Event Proposal

Event Overview

A Human Library will be held at the library. During this event patrons will be able to “borrow” Books to have an informal conversation. The event is an opportunity for individuals to connect they would not normally have the occasion to speak to within their community, to better experiences of others and to challenge their own assumptions, prejudices and stereotypes.

The Human Books participating at the event will be volunteers who have self-identified as a on their race, age, gender, religion, sexual orientation, economic status, ability/disability, or life experience (for example, “Living with HIV”). It is important that Human Books be individuals communicate clearly and feel comfortable sharing their experiences with strangers.

This event can help to increase the visibility of the library, strengthen library partnerships organizations in the community, and help the library become a community leader in issues.

Organizational and promotional support is provided by the Ontario Library Association’s Human Book @ Your Library” online toolkit.

Background Information

The Human Library concept came from Europe where it was known as the Living Library, by a Danish youth non-governmental organization called Stop the Violence in an effort to based on discrimination. The success of the concept has led to endorsement by the Nordic the Council of Europe, and the Australian Department of Immigration and Citizenship. Human have been held in countries in Western and Eastern Europe, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, States. In Canada, Human Library events have been held at Calgary Public Library, the and at Moscrop Secondary School in Burnaby, B.C.
