*The profane love receives the one he desires in a room filled with flowers, incense, to burning for music his most handsome clothes, and has all his senses present. He sets his body adorned with all his jewels on his left, and begins a

—from the Medieval Koka Shastra

Composed by scholars, medieval poets and students of the Kama Sutra, these words of advice are as creative and relevant today as they were hundreds of years ago. This latest translation of the Koka Shastra by the world-famous translator Alex Comfort—the author of the bestselling Boy of Sex—is available here for the first time. The Medieval Koka Shastra is a superb exploration of the romantic and sexual interactions of men and women, blending a time when courtesans and mistresses were seen to be practical and preferred, the beautiful advice is filled with fascinating, lesser-known of the physical signs of women and men, descriptions of the nature of their interaction, and various explorations of loving and sex. Like these other writings and several illustrations provide an insight into another world of sexual pleasure while sharing some fully practical techniques that improve loving. Illustrated fully adorned with both images drawn from a more historic and published collection of previous books on the Medieval Koka Shastra is a new addition for all times.
