School Reform and the School Library Media Specialist Sandra Hughes-Hassell, Violet H. Harada, 2007-08-30 This third entry in the Principles and Practice series focuses on the role of the library media specialist as a change agent in the school The purpose of this book is twofold to provide insight into the role of the school librarian as change agent and to demonstrate strategies for being an effective change agent using a subset of current reform initiatives The authors are educators library media specialists and researchers who share a common belief in the ability of classroom teachers administrators library media specialists parents and community members to work together to create schools that make a difference in the lives of students and help produce citizens who have a capacity to cope with change in the future Grades K 12

Foundations of Effective Influence Operations Eric Victor Larson, 2009 Interest has increased regarding capabilities that may allow the United States to effectively influence the attitudes and behavior of particular foreign audiences while minimizing or avoiding combat This increase is largely the result of 1 the post 9 11 realization that the U S image in much of the Muslim world may be facilitating the mobilization and recruitment of global jihadists and 2 the difficulties that the United States has encountered in promoting stability and political reconciliation in post war Iraq Larson et al aim to assist the U S Army in understanding influence operations whose purpose is to persuade foreign audiences The authors identify approaches methodologies and tools that may be useful in planning executing and assessing influence operations

Action Research and Organizational Development J. Barton Cunningham, 1993 Action Research and Organizational Development describes a process of change that encourages research and consulting skills In this process research data about an organization or culture is systematically collected to develop an understanding of the needs issues and problems The information provides the impetus for focusing the change and making discoveries This work describes the characteristics of the action research process and the procedure for its implementation This particular type of applied social research differs from other varieties in the immediacy of the researcher s involvement and collaboration in each stage of researching focusing and implementing The work describes the continuous process of research and learning in relation to the researcher s long term relationship with a problem or issue This book is relevant for all those who share the goal of positive change within the organization

Adult Education at the Crossroads Matthias Finger, José Manuel Asún, 2001 This is a pithy assessment of where adult education now stands the traditions out of which it came its current problems and possible futures The authors are particularly concerned with how its longstanding commitment to deliver social change ran into difficulties in the less favourable circumstances of the 1980s and 1990s They argue that its purposes now need to be reconceptualized in order for it to become once again a relevant and effective agent of change The authors remind adult educationists of their traditional commitment to social action by surveying the ideas of seminal adult education thinkers as they developed historically in Europe North America and later the Third World They show how today s very different context has eroded that original vision and purpose The book concludes by identifying four possible future scenarios the challenges confronting an adult education still committed to social change and the key features which they believe can contribute to learning our way out of the current impasse
