Land And Environmental Art:

Land and Environmental Art Jeffrey Kastner, 2010-06-23 The traditional landscape genre was radically transformed in the 1960s when many artists stopped merely representing the land and made their mark directly in the environment Drawn by vast uncultivated spaces of desert and mountain as well as by post industrial wastelands artists such as Michael Heizer Nancy Holt and Robert Smithson moved earth to create colossal primal symbols Others punctuated the horizon with man made signposts such as Christo s Running Fence and Walter de Maria s The Lightning Field For Richard Long journeys became works of art while Dennis Oppenheim immersed his entire body in the contours of the land In this broad survey of Land Art Brian Wallis discusses the key artists works and issues that define Land Art historically as well as its later ramifications This book fully documents the 1960s Land Art movement and surveys examples of Environmental Art to the present day Earthworks environments performances and actions by artists ranging from Ana Mendieta in the 1970s and 80s to Peter Fend in the 1990s are illustrated with breathtaking photographs sketches and project notes

Natural Art , The Art of Environmental Law Benjamin J Richardson, 2019-12-12 Environmental law has aesthetic dimensions Aesthetic values have shaped the making of environmental law and in turn such law governs many of our nature based sensory experiences Aesthetics is also integral to understanding the very fabric of environmental law in its institutions procedures and discourses The Art of Environmental Law the first book of its kind brings new insights into the importance of aesthetic issues in a variety of domains of environmental governance around the world from climate change to biodiversity conservation It also argues for aesthetics and relatedly the arts to be taken more seriously in the practice of environmental law so as to improve our emotional and ethical capacities to address the upheavals of the Anthropocene

Reimagining Singapore Chee-Hoo Lum, Juliette Yu-Ming Lizeray, Chor Leng Twardzik Ching, 2023-08-01 This book approaches the subject of contemporary art by exploring the social embeddedness and identities of Singaporean artists Linking artistic processes and production to both personal worlds and wider issues the book examines how artists negotiate their relationships between self and society and between artistic freedom and social responsibility It is based on original research into the discourses and artistic practices of local artists with a special focus on emerging artists and artists whose work and perspectives engage with questions of identity Reimagining contemporary Singapore and their place within it artists are asserting their multiple and heterogeneous self identities and contesting hegemonic norms and notions as they negotiate and adapt to the world around them This book is relevant to students and researchers in the fields of cultural studies media studies art sociology of art arts education and race and ethnicity studies

The Utopian Globalists Jonathan Harris, 2013-01-02 THE UTOPIAN GLOBALISTS Crossing continents historical periods and cultural genres Jonathan Harris skilfully traces the evolution of utopian ideals from early modernism to the spectacularised and biennialised or banalised as some would say contemporary art world of today Michael Asbury University of the Arts London The Utopian Globalists is the second in a trilogy of books by Jonathan Harris examining the contours forces materials and meanings of the global art world along with its contexts of emergence since the early twentieth century The first of the three studies Globalization and Contemporary Art Wiley Blackwell 2011 anatomized the global art system through an extensive anthology of over 30 essays contextualized through multiple thematic introductions The final book in the series Contemporary Art in a Globalized World forthcoming Wiley Blackwell combines the historical and contemporary perspectives of the first and second books in an account focused on the mediatizations shaping and representing contemporary art and its circuits of global production dissemination and consumption This innovative and revealing history examines artists whose work embodies notions of revolution and human social transformation The clearly structured historical narrative takes the reader on a cultural odyssey that begins with Vladimir Tatlin s constructivist model for a Monument to the Third International 1919 a statement of utopian globalist intent via Picasso s 1940s commitment to Soviet communism and John and Yoko s Montreal Bedin to what the author calls the late globalism of the Unilever Series at London s Tate Modern The book maps the ways artists and their work engaged with and offered commentary on modern spectacle in both capitalist and socialist modernism throughout the eras of the Russian Revolution the Cold War and the increasingly globalized world of the past 20 years In doing so Harris explores the idea that the utopian globalist lineage in art remains torn between its yearning for freedom and a deepening identification with spectacle as a media commodity to be traded and consumed

Landscape into Eco Art Mark Cheetham, 2018-02-14 Dedicated to an articulation of the earth from broadly ecological perspectives eco art is a vibrant subset of contemporary art that addresses the widespread public concern with rapid climate change and related environmental issues In Landscape into Eco Art Mark Cheetham systematically examines connections and divergences between contemporary eco art land art of the 1960s and 1970s and the historical genre of landscape painting Through eight thematic case studies that illuminate what eco art means in practice reception and history Cheetham places the form in a longer and broader art historical context He considers a wide range of media from painting sculpture and photography to artists films video sound work animation and installation and analyzes the work of internationally prominent artists such as Olafur Eliasson Nancy Holt Mark Dion and Robert Smithson In doing so Cheetham reveals eco art to be a dynamic extension of a long tradition of landscape depiction in the West that boldly enters into today s debates on climate science government policy and our collective and individual responsibility to the planet An ambitious intervention into eco criticism and the environmental humanities this volume provides original ways to understand the issues and practices of eco art in the Anthropocene Art historians humanities scholars and lay readers interested in contemporary art and the environment will find Cheetham s work valuable and invigorating
