Alsen, 1996 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen s book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disjunctive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence Text in Contemporary Theatre Guna Zeltiņa with Sanita

Reinsone,2014-08-11 This collection of articles is devoted to the relationship between text and performance in contemporary theatre In this volume nineteen theatre and drama researchers from the Baltic countries Sweden Finland Ireland Hungary Russia and China discuss the results of their research into these issues in academic articles and essays The book mainly focuses on the experience of the Baltics in the creation of theatrical texts but it also provides a wider insight into the changing processes of world drama and theatre Three sections of the volume provide numerous examples of the functionality of traditional texts in today s theatre as well as introducing the reader to new names in contemporary drama and the different models of practice in theatre companies This book with its rich collection of material and detailed analysis of different methods and experiences of contemporary theatre is recommended for both theatre and drama theoreticians and practitioners
