model and training survey and the Medicare Part D MTM program standardized format About Canada: Health and Illness, 3rd Edition Dennis Raphael,2024-05-02T00:00:00Z Living a long healthy life is one obvious goal of pretty much all of us We are told over and over to change our lifestyles and accept that if we become ill we have likely brought it on ourselves Yet hundreds of studies over the past four decades tell the real story the living and working conditions we experience every day play a determining role in our health How income and wealth housing education and adequate food are distributed whether or not we are employed and the working conditions we experience not medical treatments nor so called wellness lifestyles determine whether we stay healthy or become ill These living and working conditions reflect the social inequalities that are associated with social class gender race and other social locations in Canadian society The third edition of Health and Illness shows how inequitable distribution of the social determinants of health are determined by public policy decisions Dennis Raphael updates information that connects health and illness to the worsening levels of inequality in Canada the rich are getting richer and the rest of us are getting sick This edition also includes a chapter on the social determinants of who got sick and died from COVID 19 The experiences during the COVID 19 pandemic make the clear case that we need to restructure work and living conditions through public policy that more equitably distributes economic resources It is only through such actions that we will be able to promote the health of Canadians and prevent illness in an effective manner

Victimisation in the Digital Age Tine Munk, Morag Kennedy,2024-09-03 Examining how victimisation can occur across the online offline continuum while emphasising the need for a holistic approach to understanding and addressing contemporary harms this book covers various themes of victimisation in the digital age linked to the interconnectedness and blurred boundaries between online and offline experiences The book chapters provide a critical examination of how digital advancements have paved the way for new forms of victimisation underlining the crucial role of criminology in confronting these issues and shaping policy It covers a variety of themes from the nuances of cybercrime and the repercussions of modern technologies on intimate partner violence and sexual abuse to hate crimes against marginalised groups extremism and information disorder Central to these areas is the online offline continuum approach which encapsulates the blending of the digital and physical realms challenging the conventional dichotomy in which they are often considered Through its extensive exploration of diverse subjects this book provides a thorough overview of different victimisation types deepening our comprehension of the intricate challenges in online and offline spaces Blending theoretical insights methodological rigour and practical strategies to comprehensively dissect victimisation in the digital era Victimisation in the Digital Age is an important resource that will appeal to students scholars and practitioners with an interest in criminology victimology sociology and communication studies The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Fishweirs John M. Connaway,2007 States, Civilisations and the Reset of World Order Richard Higgott,2021-09-16 This book evaluates the current state of world dis order at a time of growing populism nationalism and pandemic panic It distils the implications of the civilisational state for world order The retreat of US leadership is mirrored by the decline of both the material and normative liberal multilateral infrastructure it supported Meanwhile the rise of China as a challenger is accompanied in political economic and cultural terms by other emerging powers no longer bound to the norms of 20th century world affairs notably Turkey India China and Russia By emphasising a cultural lens of analysis alongside robust political and economic analysis the author offers a prescriptive agenda for the coming post pandemic age that recognises the changing powers of civilisational state and hybrid non state actors Without overestimating their probabilities he outlines prospects and preconditions for effective inter civilisational dialogue and proposes a series of minimal conditions for a multilateral reset This book will appeal to public and private decision makers the media the educated lay public and civil society actors interested in the rise of civilisational politics and its possible consequences for world affairs It will be of particular interest to students and researchers in the fields of politics international relations international political economy geopolitics strategic studies foreign policy and social psychology
