Checklist of criteria

Checking out my old classmates

Last week I had a look at a website called Classmates and I made some interesting discoveries about the people who were at my class when I was at school.

Many of them went to university and some have got into well-paid professions. Some have started their own businesses.

Some have moved to other countries and some have started families. Some have become famous and some have become rich.

Some have become successful in their careers and some have become successful in their hobbies. Some have become successful in their sports and some have become successful in their art.

Some have become successful in their studies and some have become successful in their work. Some have become successful in their life and some have become successful in their love.

Some have become successful in their health and some have become successful in their happiness. Some have become successful in their success and some have become successful in their failure.

Some have become successful in their dreams and some have become successful in their goals. Some have become successful in their wishes and some have become successful in their prayers.

Some have become successful in their hopes and some have become successful in their expectations. Some have become successful in their desires and some have become successful in their needs.

Some have become successful in their wants and some have become successful in their requirements. Some have become successful in their demands and some have become successful in their requests.
