Subjects range from Richter's place within art history to artists' books, architecture, religion, unrealised projects, and his advice for young artists. The collection also includes a previously unpublished interview focused on Richter's much lauded window for Cologne Cathedral unveiled in 2007. Obrist's vast knowledge and interrogating mind, coupled with his longstanding friendship with Richter, make him a unique interlocutor for an artist whose work spans more than 60 years and ranges from painting to photography, glass to printmaking, watercolours to books. Obrist deftly guides the reader through a dazzling array of topics and offers an invaluable historical perspective on Richter's place within the art world of the 20th and 21st centuries. Illustrations of discussed artworks by Richter feature throughout the texts for visual reference, making this an indispensable guide to the thinking and creative processes of one of the world's most admired artists. Hans Ulrich Obrist: Marina Abramović and Gregory Chaitin Hans Ulrich Obrist, Transcripts of interviews by Hans Ulrich Obrist with architects, artists, curators, film makers, musicians, philosophers, social theorists, and urbanists. The conversation wanders seamlessly from architecture to rock and roll, philosophy to astrology. Graham's early performance pieces, photography, and articles to the films and glass pavilions for which he is most well known. A veritable fountain of knowledge, his recollections of friends and colleagues, art work, and influences provide an invaluable insight not only into the New York art scene of the 60s and 70s but also one of its most influential representatives. Dan Graham was born in 1942 in Urbana, Illinois, and now lives and works in New York. Ai Weiwei Speaks Hans Ulrich Obrist, 2011-05-26 If artists betray the social conscience and the basic principles of being human, where does art stand? Then Ai Weiwei, artist, architect, curator, publisher, poet, and urbanist, extended the notion of art and is one of the world's most significant creative and cultural figures. In this series of interviews conducted over several years with the curator Hans Ulrich Obrist, he discusses the many dimensions of his artistic life, ranging over subjects including ceramics, blogging, nature, philosophy, and the myriad influences that have fed into his work. He also talks candidly about his father, his childhood spent in exile, and his criticism of the Chinese state. Together, these extraordinary discussions give a unique insight into the outstanding complexity of Ai Weiwei's thought and work, and are an essential reminder of the need for personal, political, and artistic freedom. Gerhard Richter Dietmar
