Perception Identity In Intercultural Communication:

Perception & Identity in Intercultural Communication Marshall R. Singer, 1998 This dynamic revision is updated and retitled to more accurately reflect its content In it Singer explores the communication process and the manner in which perception and identity affect communication on every level of interaction Interpersonal intergroup and international From his analysis of cultural and group identities each individual develops he argues convincingly that all individuals are culturally unique and that all communication therefore is to some degree intercultural Intercultural Communication Marshall R. Singer, 1987 Developing of Cultural Identity and Perception of Foreign Cultures Martin Strang, 2005-01-20 Essay from the year 2004 in the subject Communications Intercultural Communication grade High Distinction Macquarie University Centre for International Communication course Cross Cultural Communication language English abstract In this critical analysis the question of how people develop their cultural identity and perceive foreign cultures will be answered This is done through an analysis of the following points First different definitions or attempted definitions of culture are critically regarded Then the role of identity in cross cultural communication is examined with focus on the creation of cultural identities just as different communication styles related to specific identities In the third part of this paper the roles of stereotypes in cross cultural communications are discussed with reference to their functions in society Finally the topic of nonverbal communication especially attempts to describe nonverbal communication of a specific culture is examined In the conclusion the results of this paper are discussed and summarised The essay refers to the movie The Quiet American in footnotes to illustrate theoretical aspects with appropriate examples Culture is a complex and constantly changing phenomenon so definitions of culture are quite numerous and differing Brislin 2000 p 23 refers to the definition of Triandis Kurowski Tecktiel they are shared by people who communicate in the same language and live in the same time place Even though this definition is obviously general it cannot be seen as one accepted by all researchers in cross cultural communication Brislin 2000 p 30 tries to define culture by constructing a checklist consisting of twelve points in order to prove if a specific behaviour or ideal is part of one s culture or not This checklist can be seen as a practical tool for people dealing with cross cultural settings but it is hardly a theoretical definition Raymond Williams 1962 cited in Lull 1995 p 130 defines culture as a particular way of life which is shared by a community The definition of Williams emphasises the dynamic character of culture which changes when we as members of our own culture change the way we talk dress or work At the same time Williams definition makes no distinction between superior or inferior cultures furthermore everybody has their specific way of life The Art of Intercultural Communication: Tips and Techniques for Bridging the Gap Lely Novia, Ananta Vidya, The Art of Intercultural Communication Tips and Techniques for Bridging the Gap is a practical guidebook that provides readers with the tools and strategies needed to effectively communicate across cultures The book emphasizes the importance of understanding cultural differences and how they impact communication and provides readers with tips and techniques for navigating these differences The guidebook covers a range of topics including effective communication cultural awareness and strategies for building trust and rapport with people from different cultures The book also includes case studies and real world examples to help readers apply the concepts and techniques discussed in the book Whether you are a business professional a student or simply someone who wants to improve their intercultural communication skills The Art of Intercultural Communication is an essential resource for bridging the gap between cultures and building meaningful relationships
