Master Anyone who has read and loved Autobiography of a Yogi will be delighted to find this treasure of personal experiences and heartfelt remembrances of Paramhansa Yogananda by three of his direct disciples. Stories from Yogananda's family members Hare Krishna Ghosh and Meera Ghosh who became disciples as teenagers take the reader on pilgrimage to India to the sacred places and miraculous moments shared with this great yogi. The stories of Peggy Deitz transport one to Yogananda's ashram in California and his time living with devotees in America. These accounts, whether humorous or miraculous, casual or divine, bring to life the experience of being in Yogananda's presence. They give insight into the profound love with which he guided each individual. Yogananda was not only one of the greatest yoga masters of our time; He was an avatar, an incarnation of the Divine. Firsthand experiences from close disciples are a true gift that can help us tune in to his vast nature. At the same time, these delightful stories will touch your heart and uplift your spirit.

Little Guruji Bhakti Marga, 2017-06-01 This is the true story of a little boy who saw, loved and honoured the divine Light in everything and everyone, and this made him very different from other children. While other children would go to the playground to play, he would go to temples and pray. While others would spend their money on candy, he would spend his money on pictures of saints. He was teased sometimes for being so different, but he would grow up to become the Satguru, the great spiritual teacher that we now respectfully call Guruji. This is the true story of a child with the Light inside. Paramahansa Sri Swami Vishwananda. This book is designed for an adult to read to their child, since the story is simple but the vocabulary is more advanced than small children are familiar with.
