 with literary analysis Adam Barrows takes a provocative look at the creation of world standard time in 1884 and rethinks the significance of this remarkable moment in modernism for both the processes of imperialism and for modern literature As representatives from twenty four nations argued over adopting the Prime Meridian and thereby measuring time in relation to Greenwich England writers began experimenting with new ways of representing human temporality Barrows finds this experimentation in works as varied as Victorian adventure novels high modernist texts and South Asian novels including the work of James Joyce Virginia Woolf H Rider Haggard Bram Stoker Rudyard Kipling and Joseph Conrad Demonstrating the investment of modernist writing in the problems of geopolitics and in the public discourse of time Barrows argues that it is possible and productive to rethink the politics of modernism through the politics of time Review Projector (India).
