Chapter Guided Reading British Imperialism In India:

World History: Connections to Today Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Pearson/Prentice Hall, 2003-12 Human Heritage Miriam Greenblatt, Peter S. Lemmo, 2001 A world history textbook chronicling the rise of Western and Eastern civilizations Includes photos art illustrated charts vocabulary exercises and review questions Allegories of Empire Jenny Sharpe, Allegories of Empire was first published in 1993 Allegories of Empire reconstitutes a metropolitan masterpiece Forster's A Passage to India within colonial discourse studies Sharpe a materialist feminist is scrupulous in her use of theory to articulate nationalism historical race gendering and contemporary feminist critique Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Columbia University Jenny Sharpe has done a great service in opening up the virtually taboo subject of the rape of the white woman by the colored man and furthermore in teaching us theory making by locating this frenzy of fantasy and reality within a specific crisis of European colonialism in India In showing how a wild anthropology must continuously rework feminism in the face of racism and vice versa she shows how the margins of empire were and still are at its center Michael Taussig New York University Allegories of Empire introduces race and colonialism to feminist theories of rape and sexual difference deploying women's writing to undo the appropriation of English universal womanhood for the perpetuation of Empire Sharpe brings the historical memory of the 1857 Indian Mutiny to bear upon the theme of rape in British and Anglo Indian fiction She argues that the idea of Indian men raping white women was not part of the colonial landscape prior to the revolt that was remembered as the savage attack of mutinous Indian soldiers on defenseless English women By showing how contemporary theories of female agency are implicated in an imperial past Sharpe argues that such models are inappropriate not only for discussion of colonized women but for European women as well Ultimately she insists that feminist theory must begin from difference and dislocation rather than from identity and correspondence if it is to get beyond the race gender class impasse Jenny Sharpe received her Ph D in comparative literature at the University of Texas at Austin and is currently a professor of English at the University of California at Los Angeles She has contributed articles to Modern Fiction Studies Genders and boundary 2 Clothing Gandhi's Nation Lisa N. Trivedi, 2007-06-14 In Clothing Gandhi's Nation Lisa Trivedi explores the making of one of modern India's most enduring political symbols khadi a homespun home woven cloth The image of Mohandas K Gandhi clothed simply in a loincloth and plying a spinning wheel is familiar around the world as is the sight of Gandhi Jawaharlal Nehru and other political leaders dressed in Gandhi caps and khadi shirts Less widely understood is how these images associate the wearers with the swadeshi movement which advocated the exclusive consumption of indigenous goods to establish India's autonomy from Great Britain or how khadi was used to create a visual expression of national identity after Independence Trivedi brings together social history and the study of visual culture to account for khadi as both symbol and commodity Written in a clear narrative style the book provides a cultural history of important and distinctive aspects of modern Indian history A History of World Societies, Volume 2: Since 1450 John P. McKay, Bennett D.

Hill, John Buckler, Roger B. Beck, Clare Haru Crowston, Patricia Buckley Ebrey, Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, 2011-10-05 A History of World Societies introduces students to the global past through social history and the stories and voices of the people who lived it. Now published by Bedford St Martin's and informed by the latest scholarship, the book has been thoroughly revised with students in mind to meet the needs of the evolving course. Proven to work in the classroom, the book's regional and comparative approach helps students understand the connections of global history while providing a manageable organization. With more global connections and comparisons, more documents, special features, and activities that teach historical analysis, and an entirely new look, the ninth edition is the most teachable and accessible edition yet. Asia and the Americas, 1945 Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction Julie Mehta, Harish Mehta, 2024-09-13. Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction is a comprehensive study of the novels of the Sri Lankan Canadian author and poet Michael Ondaatje. This survey of the Booker Prize winning novelist's works locates him as a powerful voice that urges globalization and multiculturalism in a world that is closing its borders. It reconnoitres Ondaatje's search for a homeland by cracking open the core of his evocative, inventive, and innovative concepts that undergird his art of storytelling. The contributors in this volume examine themes such as literary cosmopolitanism, Sri Lankan identity, diasporic identity, race, and racism, home and belonging, trauma in the Sri Lankan civil war, war games, and uncertainty theory. An important contribution to Ondaatje studies, the book is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of Sri Lankan literature, diasporic, and world literatures, South Asian, and Canadian studies, cultural studies, postcolonial fiction, and history.

Transport Salaried Staff Journal, 1935 Out of Bounds Alan G. Johnson, 2011-03-31. Out of Bounds focuses on the crucial role that conceptions of iconic colonial Indian spaces—jungles, cantonments, cities, hill stations, bazaars, clubs—played in the literary and social production of British India. Author Alan Johnson illuminates the geographical, rhetorical, and ideological underpinnings of such depictions and from this argues that these spaces operated as powerful motifs in the acculturation of Anglo-India. He shows that the bicultural, intrinsically ambivalent outlook of Anglo-Indian writers is acutely sensitive to spatial motifs that insofar as these condition the idea of home and homelessness alternately support and subvert conventional colonial perspectives Colonial spatial motifs not only informed European representations of India but also shaped important aesthetic notions of the period such as the sublime This book also explains how and why Europeans rhetorical and visual depictions of the Indian subcontinent whether ostensibly administrative scientific or aesthetic constituted a primary means of memorializing Empire creating an idiom that postcolonial India continues to use in certain ways Consequently Johnson examines specific motifs of Anglo Indian cultural remembrance such as the hunting memoir hill station life and the Mutiny all of which facilitated the mythic iconography of the Raj He bases his work on the premise that spatiality the physical as well as social conceptualization of space is a vital component of the mythos of colonial life and that the study of spatiality is too often a subset of a focus on temporality Johnson reads canonical and lesser known fiction memoirs and travelogues alongside colonial archival documents to identify shared spatial motifs and idioms that were common to the period Although he discusses colonial works he focuses primarily on the writings of Anglo Indians such as Rudyard Kipling John Masters Jim Corbett and Flora Annie Steel to demonstrate how conventions of spatial identity were rhetorically maintained and continually compromised All of these considerations amplify this book s focus on the porosity of boundaries in literatures of the colony and of the nation Out of Bounds will be of interest to not only postcolonial literary scholars but also scholars and students in interdisciplinary nineteenth century studies South Asian cultural history cultural anthropology women s studies and sociology
