Chimamanda Adichie:

Americanah Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, 2013-05-14 WINNER 2013 National Book Critics Circle Award for Fiction FINALIST 2014 Baileys Women's Prize for Fiction FINALIST 2014 Andrew Carnegie Medal for Fiction LONGLISTED 2015 International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award A searing new novel at once sweeping and intimate by the award winning author of Half of a Yellow Sun a story of love and race centered around a man and woman from Nigeria who seemed destined to be together until the choices they are forced to make tear them apart Ifemelu beautiful self assured left Nigeria 15 years ago and now studies in Princeton as a Graduate Fellow She seems to have fulfilled every immigrant's dream Ivy League education success as a writer of a wildly popular political blog money for the things she needs But what came before is more like a nightmare wrenching departure from family humiliating jobs under a false name She feels for the first time the weight of something she didn't think about back home race Obinze handsome and kind hearted was Ifemelu's teenage love he'd hoped to join her in America but post 9/11 America wouldn't let him in Obinze's journey leads him to back alleys of illegal employment in London to a fake marriage for the sake of a work card and finally to a set of handcuffs as he is exposed and deported Years later when they reunite in Nigeria neither is the same person who left home Obinze is the kind of successful Big Man he'd scorned in his youth and Ifemelu has become an Americanah a different version of her former self one with a new accent and attitude As they revisit their shared passion for their homeland and for each other they must face the largest challenges of their lives Spanning three continents entering the lives of a richly drawn cast of characters across numerous divides Americanah is a riveting story of love and expectation set in today's globalized world The Thing Around Your Neck Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, 2009-06-16 From the award winning bestselling author of Americanah and We Should All Be Feminists a dazzling story collection filled with indelible characters who jump off the page and into your head and heart USA Today In these twelve riveting stories the award winning Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie explores the ties that bind men and women parents and children Africa and the United States Searing and profound suffused with beauty sorrow and longing these stories map with Adichie's signature emotional wisdom the collision of two cultures and the deeply human struggle to reconcile them Notes on Grief Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, 2021-05-11 From the globally acclaimed best selling novelist and author of We Should All Be Feminists a timely and deeply personal account of the loss of her father With raw eloquence Notes on Grief captures the bewildering messiness of loss in a society that requires serenity when you'd rather just scream Grief is impolite Adichie's words put welcome authentic voice to this most universal of emotions which is also one of the most universally avoided The Washington Post Notes on Grief is an exquisite work of meditation remembrance and hope written in the wake of Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's beloved father's death in the summer of 2020 As the COVID-19 pandemic raged around the world and kept Adichie and her family members separated from one another her father succumbed unexpectedly to complications of kidney failure Expanding on her original New Yorker piece Adichie shares how this loss shook her to her core She writes about being one of the millions of people grieving this year about the familial and cultural dimensions of grief and also about the loneliness and anger that are unavoidable in it With signature precision of language and glittering devastating detail on the page and never without touches of rich honest humor Adichie weaves together her own experience of her father's death with threads of his life story from his remarkable survival during the Biafran war through a long career as a statistics professor into the days of the pandemic in which he'd stay connected with his children and grandchildren over video chat from the family home in Abba Nigeria In the compact format of We Should All Be Feminists and Dear Ijeawele Adichie delivers a gem of a book a book that fundamentally connects us to one another as it probes one of the most universal human experiences Notes on Grief is a book for this moment a work readers will treasure and share now more than ever and yet will prove durable and timeless an indispensable addition to Adichie's canon

Middlebrow 2.0 and the Digital Affect Hannah Pardey, 2023-10-15 Middlebrow 2.0 and the Digital Affect investigates the material conditions of producing distributing and consuming the postcolonial in the Internet era Bridging the gap between postcolonial and middlebrow studies the digital humanities and the history of emotions it employs corpus linguistics software to scrutinise more than 15 000 online responses to 20 new Nigerian novels unearthing the patterns of affect that characterise the contemporary digital milieu of literary transmission Building on materialist social constructionist and linguistic approaches to community and emotion the study illustrates how Amazon Goodreads and YouTube capitalise on socially oriented cross border reading practices by creating empathic communities of ethnically diverse yet socially balanced readers who use social media to fashion themselves as emotionally receptive members of a globalising middle class formation Offering a reproducible method for exploring new forms of postcolonial reader engagement that strengthens the postcolonial analysis of inclusion and exclusion the book shows that the digital mediation of postcolonial literatures functions to appropriate various markers of identity and difference to the standards of bourgeois literary culture The results highlight that the digital literary economy proves inclusive of the postcolonial Other but only with full reserve to middle class norms and values
