Former colleagues at My City Links pay a warm and loving tribute to Sheela Pattanayak after her passing in a tragic road accident. Om Shanti. The Japanese Cinema Book Hideaki Fujiki, Alastair Phillips, 2020-04-02. The Japanese Cinema Book provides a new and comprehensive survey of one of the world's most fascinating and widely admired filmmaking regions. In terms of its historical coverage, broad thematic approach, and the significant international range of its authors, it is the largest and most wide-ranging publication of its kind to date. Ranging from renowned directors such as Akira Kurosawa to neglected popular genres such as the film musical and encompassing topics such as ecology, spectatorship, home movies, colonial history, and relations with Hollywood and Europe, The Japanese Cinema Book presents a set of new and often surprising perspectives on Japanese film. With its plural range of interdisciplinary perspectives based on the expertise of established and emerging scholars and critics, The Japanese Cinema Book provides a groundbreaking picture of the different ways in which Japanese cinema may be understood as a local, regional, national, transnational, and global phenomenon. The book's innovative structure combines general surveys of a particular historical topic or critical approach with various micro-level case studies. It argues there is no single, fixed Japanese cinema, but instead a fluid and varied field of Japanese filmmaking cultures that continue to exist in a dynamic relationship with other cinemas, media, and regions. The Japanese Cinema Book is divided into seven inter-related sections: Theories and Approaches, Institutions and Industry, Film Style, Genre, Times and Spaces of Representation, Social Contexts, Flows and Interactions. The Global Film Book Roy Stafford, 2014-01-10. The Global Film Book is an accessible and entertaining exploration of the development of film as global industry and art form, written especially for students and introducing readers to the rich and varied cinematic landscape beyond Hollywood. Highlighting areas of difference and similarity in film economies and audiences, as well as form, genre, and narrative, this textbook considers a broad range of examples and up-to-date industry data from Europe, Africa, Asia, Australasia, and Latin America. Author Roy Stafford combines detailed studies of indigenous film and television cultures with cross-border, global, and online entertainment operations, including examples from Nollywood to Korean Cinema, via telenovelas and Nordic crime drama. The Global Film Book demonstrates a number of contrasting models of contemporary production, distribution, and consumption of film worldwide, charting and analysing the past, present, and potential futures for film throughout the world. The book also provides students with a series of exploratory pathways into film culture worldwide, illuminating analyses and suggestions for further readings and viewing, alongside explanatory margin notes and case studies, a user-friendly text design featuring over 120 colour
